Nixon Gets Peek At Russ A-Ship

LENINGRAD (AP) — The Russians lifted their secrecy curtain a bit today and let Vice President Richard M. Nixon have an hour-long look at their atomic ice-breaker Lenin.

But Vice Adm. Hyman Rickover, father of the American atomic submarine and a member of the Nixon party, told Newsmen "We are getting the run-around. I want to see the inside."

Nixon and Rickover were given a chance to inspect the prize ice-breaker from top to bottom but were kept at long range when it came to the three reactors which are to supply the power.

They were allowed for about two minutes on a catwalk in the reactor room high above the reactors themselves. Rickover said that at that distance no one could see anything, and he requested a closer look.

The reactors were inactive, though the Russians told Nixon they will be running at full power before October.

After inspecting the ice-breaker, the vice president told applauding shipyard workers: "We must work together to break the ice."

The vice president and his party flew to this second largest city of the Soviet Union to begin a five-day swing that will take them to parts of western Siberia.

Nixon told an airport crowd he and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had many differences in their six-hour talk at Khrushchev's country home yesterday but that they had agreed on one thing — that world differences "must be settled at the conference table and not on the battlefield."

Nixon backed up Rickover in his demands to see more of the atomic icebreaker. In swapping champagne toasts aboard ship, Nixon suggested that Rickover be allowed to make an additional two-hour tour by himself to inspect the reactors.

Turning to Rickover, Nixon sadi: "You stay and talk to them. You point out my understanding is that you were to see just as much—no more—as Deputy Premier Kozlov when he visited the United States.

"We think that's a fair exchange. We don't want to do anything that's wrong, only what's fair."

HOUSE FIRE VISIBLE FROM AFAR —A pillar of smoke visible over much of the Ross Valley rose directly skyward Saturday evening from a fire that destroyed the $60,000 home of William P. Raging Fire Razes Ross Home; Loss Placed At $80,000

A Ross couple and their two small sons escaped with only the clothes on their backs Saturday night as fire destroyed their $60,000 redwood home on Upper road and furnishings worth about $20,000.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. McAndrew watched helplessly as the two-story, seven-room house became an inferno minutes after they fled with the boys, Alexander, 5, and Peter, 1.

SAVES VEHICLE

McAndrew, a San Francisco lumber company executive, managed to save a Volkswagen parked in the driveway, but the family station wagon was destroyed in the garage. Mrs. McAndrew salvaged an expensive fur coat by wearing it out of the house.

Loss of the structure, perched on the side of Bald Hill, and its furnishings was nearly covered by insurance, McAndrew reported.

Ross Fire Chief A. T. Henrich said the quickly spreading fire broke out in the semi-attached garage shortly before 6:30 p.m. McAndrew had been painting there in the afternoon.

FUMES IGNITED

Henrich said fumes from the painting materials apparently were ignited by the pilot lights of heaters or other appliances in the garage.

The family was alerted by the first of several paint can explosions. Mrs. McAndrew, upstairs at the time, and her husband, downstairs with the children, were preparing to go out to dinner.

Several alarms were telephoned to the Ross Fire Department by persons who live on a hill some distance from the fire scene. The first was turned in at 6:31 p.m. by Bennet Skewes-Cox of Laurel Grove avenue.

A tall column of black smoke could be seen from miles around as Ross, San Anselmo and Marin County fire trucks sped to the spectacular blaze.

"The house was a skeleton—just the framework left—when we got there," Henrich said. "You could see right through it. The flames were very high. Since nothing could be saved, our job was principally a matter of mopping up, extinguishing the debris and protecting the surrounding area."

Low water pressure in the area and a short supply from a two-inch standpipe hydrant forced Henrich and eight Ross volunteer firemen to draw 10,000 to 12,000 gallons from the nearby swimming pool of Robert S. Cary. The fire was under control in 20 minutes.

Steel Strike Talks Bring No Changes

NEW YORK (UPI) — Federal Mediator Joseph F. Finnegan met for two hours today with representatives of the Steelworkers Union and the 12 big steel companies. He said afterward there was "no substantial change by either party in any respect." (See earlier story on page 12.)

It was the first joint session with both parties since the nationwide steel strike began July 15.

Finnegan said he would meet separately with industry representatives in the Park Lane Hotel tomorrow morning.

He said he would be in touch with David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, to make arrangements with him for a separate meeting with the union team. He said McDonald is busy with industry negotiations.

Finnegan was asked when he expected another joint session.

"I don't want to speculate," he replied.

Novato City Foes Pledge 'Surprises'

To Carry Argument To Board

By ROBERT K. NEWCOMB

Opponents to Novato incorporation will "spring a few surprises" at tomorrow's meeting of the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

That is the promise made by two leaders in a campaign against city status for the North Marin area.

Henry Lautrup and Paul Brindel announced to 25 property owners meeting at Lautrup's residence Saturday night that "we intend to show that the petitions have defects and should be declared invalid."

Petitions certified last week by the county assessor's office as bearing signatures of owners of at least 25 per cent of the land within the proposed city boundaries and 25 per cent of the assessed valuation—the legal minimum requirements—are to come before the supervisors at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

"Some persons who signed the petitions as representing the will of certain corporations, did so without the knowledge or consent of those groups," declared Brindel. "And 100 persons who signed them also signed another petition requesting exclusion from an incorporated city."

Supervisor William A. Gnoss will be asked to disqualify himself from voting on the incorporation issue, said Brindel, because he owns 42 acres within the proposed city boundaries.

There will be other surprises in store for the supervisors tomorrow, the group was told. "After Tuesday's meeting we should know if it will be necessary for us to go to court," asserted Lautrup.

"In March," he asserted, "we put the supervisors on notice that we were going to contest incorporation—that fraud is involved—and now we're going to prove it."

Lautrup and six other Novato property owners filed a petition with the county clerk March 17 charging "apparent fraud, secrecy and misrepresentation" in proceeding toward incorporation of Novato, and requesting an

UNIVERSITY DOORS OPEN — Sharon England and her Guide Dog, Sirius, here seen descending the steps of the Marin County Courthouse, today were assured entry to University of California when president Clark Kerr reversed a "not pets" rule to allow Sirius to stay with his mistress at a dormitory. Miss England and dog were graduated Saturday from Guide Dogs for the Blind in San Rafael.

U.C. Waives Anti-Pet Rule For Blind Girl

A blind girl from Los Angeles who, with her dog, was graduated last Saturday from San Rafael's Blind Dogs for the Blind, was assured today that both she and her dog may live in a dormitory of the University of California.

U.C. housing officials had rejected the dog under the dormitories' "no pet" rule. But the rejection was overruled today when the matter reached attention of president Clark Kerr.

"It was all just a mistake, a misinterpretation of a dormitory 'no-pets' rule," said a Guide Dogs spokesman. "Guide Dogs aren't pets, of course, and several of our students are attending the university with no trouble."

Center of the trouble was Sharon England, 19, blind for 10 years, who nevertheless qualified for matriculation as a freshman, and her golden retriever guide dog Sirius—named after the bright "dog star."

When Sharon and her parents, the Charles Englands of Los Angeles, went to Berkeley last March to make preliminary arrangements, they were told that no dogs were admitted to the dormitories. So they tried for accommodations in private dwellings, without success.

England, who is a Dougles Aircraft Co. executive, consulted State Sen. Richard Richards, who wrote to Kerr. But Vice-president James H. Corley replied, mentioning the anti-pet rule and enclosing another list of boarding houses.

Then Kerr read of the situation in a San Francisco newspaper.

Just what happened next hasn't ben revealed but it may have included some checkup on previous rulings for Guide Dogs.

Five Cities Form Third Ball League

NEW YORK (AP)—Formation of a third major baseball league, to be known as the Continental League, with five founding cities, was announced today by William Shea, chairman of Mayor Robert Wagner's New York Baseball Committee. The league expects to operate in 1961.

The five founding cities are New York, Houston, Toronto, Minneapolis-St. Paul and Denver.

Shea said the league would have a minimum of eight clubs and there could be more. He said it would play a 154-game schedule.

In addition to the five founders, Shea said the following cities were interested: Buffalo, Montreal, Atlanta, New Orleans, Miami, Indianapolis, Dallas-Fort Worth, San Diego, Portland, Seattle and San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Each of the five founding cities put up $150,000, to be deposited in the treasury of the new league.

POWER BLACKOUT HITS ALMOST ALL COUNTY

If you haven't set your electric clock lately it may be three minutes slow.

A wash job with a high-pressure spray caused water to seep inside a main insulator porcelain resulting in a short-circuit at 10:53 a.m. yesterday in the Ignacio substation.

All Marin electricity failed until 10:56 a.m. except at Inverness, Pt. Reyes Station and Olema. Emergency generators were switched on by hospitals and the police but most other folk never noticed the brief trouble.

Shark Catch Fails To Scare Tomales Bathers

Herbert V. Hedicke, park superintendent, reported today that although an awesome 12-foot, 750-pound white man-eater was caught early Saturday off Indian Beach, the usual number of swimmers was in evidence the next day.

At nearby Marshall, the big carcass was on display on the wharf at Tony's Seafood Restaurant, whose proprietor, Tony Konatich, caught the shark in a net.

"There certainly hasn't been any panic about it," said Hedicke. "About 1,400, the usual number, passed our check station yesterday and all received verbal warning. The usual number went swimming. One man said 'What about it? I could go on the highway and get killed!'"

Hedicke said warnings will continue to be given to bathers, advising them to stay in within warning buoys set out about 150 feet at Indian Beach, Shell Beach and Heart's Desire Beach.

He said operations of the official boat could hardly be described as a regular shark pa-

Elderly Man On Crutches Hurt By Car

The California Highway Patrol said the elderly pedestrian, Charles R. Martin, was struck at 9:30 by a northbound auto driven by James D. Hahn III, 42, of 455 Quietwood drive, Marinwood.

Patrolman Vincent Weimer said Hahn told him he thinks another car may have hit Martin first, as the crippled man appeared to be falling before he was grazed on the hip. Or, Hahn speculated, the victim may have stumbled in trying to jump out of the way of oncoming traffic.

Weimer said Martin seemed confused after the accident, insisting he was hit "at the intersection" by a car that "came around the curve."

Martin was taken by Marin Ambulance to Marin General Hospital, then transferred to San Rafael General Hospital. He was reported in "fair" condition today.

MAN-KILLER KILLED

United Parcel Strike Starts

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—San Francisco drivers for United Parcel Service refused to cross picket lines at the company's offices here today, halting all deliveries to other Bay Area points.

The pickets were thrown up by Oakland and San Leandro Teamsters striking United Parcel offices in the two cities as a measure to keep packages for the East Bay from reaching their destination.

A spokesman for the firm said Marin County and Peninsula points would not be affected today because parcels scheduled for delivery were already at the firm's local stations.

But he said if the pickets remained all traffic out of San Francisco would come to a standstill.

NOVATO

investigation by the district attorney and the county grand jury into the incorporation campaign as carried on by the Novato Home Rule Committee.

Since then, incorporation foes, headed by Lautrup, have circulated petitions in portions of Novato asking exclusion from any incorporated city.

The counter-petitions have shown that more than 60 per cent of the property owners east of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks and west of Center road are against inclusion in an incorporated city, Lautrup claimed.

"If the supervisors follow the law," Brindel interjected, "those lands will be excluded from any incorporation."

William Carpenter, a resident of west Novato, reminded those at the meeting that the petitions circulated by the incorporation foes "were signed only for exclusion. Those of us who signed them are not necessarily against incorporation as such, but we do want to stay outside of any city that is formed.

"We would rather stick with the board of supervisors than take a chance with a new (city) planning commission. In the past nine years, the county has been with us in our desire to keep the area free of tract home development."

Carpenter continued: "Today Novato has one thing to offer, and that is rural living. Land here is still comparatively easy to come by. People want assurance that no more tracts will go in."

Mere exclusion, however, warned Brindel, can mean only temporary escape from incorporation.

"Very astutely," he declared, "the Home Rule Committee has included all of the Novato Sanitary District sewer lines in the area proposed for incorporation. In the future, when someone outside the city wants sewers, they'll be told that first they'll have to annex to the city."

So even if adjacent lands are excluded from the initial area incorporated, "it will be a constant battle for us to keep out," he charged.

"They tell us," he declared, "that it will take a budget of $350,000 to run the city the first year and that there may be no taxes necessary for five years—that money will come from gas tax rebates, parking meters and business license fees. But license fees are made up by the merchants by increased prices on merchandise. And after five years we'll be paying a tax rate of at least $5 a year."

Several persons at Saturday's meeting verbally pledged financial support when Lautrup mentioned the possibility of a court battle. About 30 persons, who were unable to attend the meeting, also indicated that they will support a drive to fight incorporation, Lathrup said.

trol, but that many boats of nearby residents, including both power and sail craft, will keep close watch for sharks and make prompt report of any sinister fins.

The big shark at Tony's was still strung up this morning but about to be given to the California Academy of Sciences, according to Felix Konatich, son of the restaurant owner. W. I. Follett, curator of ichthyology, asked for the monster.

"We didn't go out last night—too busy," said Felix Konatich. "Probably we could catch many more if we wanted them, but if we went after them we should use special nets of nylon. This shark damaged the bass net.

"Every year we see some such as the two 500-pound white sharks, the same mankiller type.

Builders Urge New Limit On Apartments

The Marin branch of the Associated Home Builders, Inc., recommended to the Marin County Planning Commission that a new zoning ordinance to regulate apartment construction set no limit to the number of apartment units in any building and that eight different apartment zones be established.

Seven zones proposed by the Home Builders would range from 1,000 square feet per apartment unit to 3,000 square feet. An eighth zone, with no designated site area per apartment unit, would cover multistory, luxury apartments.

Another proposal in a set of written recommendations signed by Carl S. Brown, secretary-manager of the home builders association, was that one parking space be provided for each apartment unit, allowing up to 1,750 square feet per unit.

The home builders association recommended that buildings on sites allowing 2,000 to 3,000 square feet per apartment unit have three parking spaces for every two apartments.

The recommendations were presented at a special meeting of the five-member county planning commission and persons interested in a new apartment zoning ordinance. Among those present were Daniel F. Deedy, secretary-manager of the Marin County Real Estate Board, and Carroll A. Snyker, manager of the Marin Industrial Development Foundation.

The special meeting was called when protests developed over a set of proposed changes in the apartment zoning ordinance drafted by the planning commission's staff.

These included a required 1,750-square-foot allowance on the apartment building site for each unit; a proposed minimum of six to eight units per building, and three parking spaces for every two units.

The county planning commission is scheduled to take action on the apartment zoning ordinance at its Aug. 3 meeting.

S.F. Laborer Accused Of Gun Thefts

A San Francisco laborer was in Marin County Jail today on suspicion of breaking into the New Albion Ranch Gun Club in Inverness on two occasions and slipping out with a minor arsenal of weapons.

Undersheriff Eugene Meyer identified the suspect as Samuel Madison Beall, 43, a former employee of the gun club.

Sheriff's Inspector William Bradley and Inspector Nick Giampoli of San Rafael police searched Beall's apartment and found four of the missing guns and a boat lantern, also missing from the gun club. Beall denied the burglary, insisting he bought or traded the guns from unknown persons.

Melvin John Muzinich of 137 West End aveuue, San Rafael, member of the gun club, told Inspector Bradley the first break-in occurred last April, and the second about three weeks ago.

Sales Turney, another gun club official who lives on Mary street in San Rafael, said five guns were stolen from his home. Officers said Beall had worked for Turney at both the gun club and Turney's home.

Other items missing from the gun club are shotgun shells, a green boat, and two dozen duck decoys.

HAFB 'Copter Saves Injured Deer Hunter

A Hamilton Air Force helicopter today rescued from a rugged canyon near Geyserville a San Francisco deer hunter who had been critically injured in falling from a tree.

The 'copter, from the 41st Air Rescue Squadron at Hamilton, flew Leroy Douglas, 61, to Sonoma County Hospital in Santa Rosa.

Douglas was on a deer hunting party about 10 miles northeast of Geyserville. When he failed to return to camp last night, his companions started a search. They did not find him until 2:40 a.m. today.

Apparently, Douglas had become lost and climbed a tree to try to spot a landmark. He had fallen from the tree, bounced 25 feet down a cliff and rolled 50 feet more down a steep ridge.

The hunters, unable to carry Douglas out of the rugged area, reached a telephone and called for help. The helicopter was dispatched from Hamilton with Capt. Charles E. Hamrick of 66 Reposa Vista, Novato, at the controls.

The 'copter made a landing in the canyon and flew the injured man to the Santa Rosa hospital, where he was given emergency treatment. He was then transferred by ambulance to Franklin Hospital in San Francisco. Attendants there said he was undergoing X-rays at 12:30 p.m.

Co-pilot of the 'copter was 1st Lt. L. G. Rienke of Novato. Also aboard was a parademic, S/Sgt. Eugene Wisiler of Hamilton Air Force Base.

Illegal Dwellings Empty? Sausalito Isn't Certain

Are the Sausalito's illegal apartments and barges empty or occupied?

Sausalito officialdom didn't have an answer today.

Police Sgt. Stanley Kelly was ordered by City Mgr. Donald A. Duerr to inspect Ways 1, 2 and 3 of Marinship, owned by Donlon Arques, to see whether they had been vacated Saturday in accordance with a court order.

Kelly took a look yesterday, but . . .

"In some of those places it's kind of hard to tell whether they're occupied by looking from the outside," he said. "They looked the same as usual to me."

It was the same story with barges moored on underwater Mono street, which also were to be vacated under court order.

Snorted City Atty. John B. Ehlen:

"If those places have not been vacated in accordance with court order and I have evidence of it, I will promptly apply to the court for contempt citations."

Duerr said he would let Ehlen know "in two or three days." Meantime, he wants to have a little more checking (maybe peek through the windows?).

scene, said firemen ran about 600 feet of hose from the pool to the blazing house. The pool is fed by natural flow from a spring near Cary's house.

The San Anselmo Fire Department dispatched a high-pressure unit and a combination pumper in the initial belief, Henrich said, that the fire was on San Anselmo's Oak avenue. Several alarms were turned in by San Anselmo residents.

Henrich said San Anselmo firemen used the Upper road standpipe hydrant, located some 150 feet from the fire scene and fed by a four-inch line from a water tank on Oak avenue in San Anselmo.

While the blaze was roaring, two Marin County units led by Asst. Chief Louis Bloom patroled the surrounding area. They quickly doused several small fires caused by falling embers. Only one tree, an oak at the corner of the burning house, was destroyed.

Firemen said the absence of high winds prevented the blaze from spreading over the entire hillside. The area was patroled all night.

Built in the mid-1940s, the house had a peaked chalet-type roof, beamed ceilings and a large stone chimney and fireplace. Its spacious living room, two stories high, contained a number of valuable Oriental rugs.

The McAndrews, who had lived there about 18 months, moved in temporarily with Dr. and Mrs. Dohrmann Pischel, Mrs. McAndrew's parents, on Canyon road in Ross.

Deputy Raids Junior Grade 'Party Pad'

A sheriff's deputy raided a junior-sized "party pad" in Marin City last night and arrested one of its young occupants on suspicion of stealing beer to furnish the pad with refreshments.

Deputy Frederick Marcus noticed a 14-year-old boy emerge from Brice Brothers market with a bulge under his arm about 6 a.m. The officer followed the boy to the basement of unoccupied House 359 in back of the market and surveyed this scene:

On an improvised bar were five cans of beer, two bottles of soft drinks and a bag of cheese crackers. Sitting around ready to partake of the refreshments were the 14-year-old host and his two guests, aged 10 12.

Marcus grabbed the host but the two guests scampered away. The 14-year-old admitted stealing beer from the market, the officer reported. He was turned over to juvenile authorities.

MAN-KILLER KILLED

Caught accidentally Saturday in the sea bass net of Felix (left) and Tony Konatich of Marshall on Tomales Bay, this 750-pound mankilling white shark has been given for scientific purposes to W. I. United Parcel Strike Starts

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—San Francisco drivers for United Parcel Service refused to cross picket lines at the company's offices here today, halting all deliveries to other Bay Area points.

The pickets were thrown up by Oakland and San Leandro Teamsters striking United Parcel offices in the two cities as a measure to keep packages for the East Bay from reaching their destination.

A spokesman for the firm said Marin County and Peninsula points would not be affected today because parcels scheduled for delivery were already at the firm's local stations.

But he said if the pickets remained all traffic out of San Francisco would come to a standstill.

investigation by the district attorney and the county grand jury into the incorporation campaign as carried on by the Novato Home Rule Committee.

Since then, incorporation foes, headed by Lautrup, have circulated petitions in portions of Novato asking exclusion from any incorporated city.

The counter-petitions have shown that more than 60 per cent of the property owners east of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks and west of Center road are against inclusion in an incorporated city, Lautrup claimed.

"If the supervisors follow the law," Brindel interjected, "those lands will be excluded from any incorporation."

William Carpenter, a resident of west Novato, reminded those at the meeting that the petitions circulated by the incorporation foes "were signed only for exclusion. Those of us who signed them are not necessarily against incorporation as such, but we do want to stay outside of any city that is formed.

"We would rather stick with the board of supervisors than take a chance with a new (city) planning commission. In the past nine years, the county has been with us in our desire to keep the area free of tract home development."

Carpenter continued: "Today Novato has one thing to offer, and that is rural living. Land here is still comparatively easy to come by. People want assurance that no more tracts will go in."

Mere exclusion, however, warned Brindel, can mean only temporary escape from incorporation.

"Very astutely," he declared, "the Home Rule Committee has included all of the Novato Sanitary District sewer lines in the area proposed for incorporation. In the future, when someone outside the city wants sewers, they'll be told that first they'll have to annex to the city."

So even if adjacent lands are excluded from the initial area incorporated, "it will be a constant battle for us to keep out," he charged.

"They tell us," he declared, "that it will take a budget of $350,000 to run the city the first year and that there may be no taxes necessary for five years—that money will come from gas tax rebates, parking meters and business license fees. But license fees are made up by the merchants by increased prices on merchandise. And after five years we'll be paying a tax rate of at least $5 a year."

Several persons at Saturday's meeting verbally pledged financial support when Lautrup mentioned the possibility of a court battle. About 30 persons, who were unable to attend the meeting, also indicated that they will support a drive to fight incorporation, Lathrup said.

The big shark at Tony's was still strung up this morning but about to be given to the California Academy of Sciences, according to Felix Konatich, son of the restaurant owner. W. I. Follett, curator of ichthyology, asked for the monster.

A sheriff's deputy raided a junior-sized "party pad" in Marin City last night and arrested one of its young occupants on suspicion of stealing beer to furnish the pad with refreshments.

Deputy Frederick Marcus noticed a 14-year-old boy emerge from Brice Brothers market with a bulge under his arm about 6 a.m. The officer followed the boy to the basement of unoccupied House 359 in back of the market and surveyed this scene:

On an improvised bar were five cans of beer, two bottles of soft drinks and a bag of cheese crackers. Sitting around ready to partake of the refreshments were the 14-year-old host and his two guests, aged 10 12.

Marcus grabbed the host but the two guests scampered away. The 14-year-old admitted stealing beer from the market, the officer reported. He was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Man Arrested After Woman Cut On Face

An unemployed San Rafael laborer was arrested Saturday night on a citizen warrant signed by a San Anselmo woman who told police he slashed her in the face with a butcher knife.

HER STORY

Mrs. Arata, who lives in an upstairs apartment with her two children, told officers this story:

Travis' estranged wife, Yvonne, who resides in the apartment below, became distressed when her husband telephoned her that he was coming to see her. Mrs. Travis said she wanted to leave, and she persuaded Mrs. Arata to watch her small children while she was gone.

Mrs. Arata was checking the sleeping children when Travis walked in the back door and called out his wife's name. She saw him standing in the kitchen brandishing a butcher knife, and told him his wife wasn't home.

KNIFE THREAT

Travis threatened to cut her throat, she said. He advanced and slapped her with the weapon, inflicting the small gash. After wiping the blood from her face, he led her upstairs at knifepoint, still calling his wife's name.

He searched Mrs. Arata's apartment, releasing her when he checked the small attic room in which her own children were sleeping. She fled to a telephone and called police.

Sgt. James Orr and Officer Donald Nelson stopped Travis as he was leaving the building. The suspect denied Mrs. Arata's accusations and said he had no idea how she had been wounded.

Mrs. Arata then signed the arrest warrant and the officers took him to jail. Bail for Travis has not been set.

Arrival Of 30,000 Lambs Arouses U.S. Sheepmen

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Thirty thousand lambs arrived at San Diego harbor from Australia today and some United States sheepmen are wondering if a wolf is at the door.

The voyage of the ship, Delfino, called the world's largest floating sheep pen, attracted the attention of U.S. agriculture officials, meat company executives and sheep-raisers.

The operation is a joint venture of James Delfino of the Modern Imperial Cattle Co. of California and the International Shipping Co. of Sydney, Australia. The companies hope to ship 100,000 lambs each year.

They bought the former luxury liner Westralia for $400,000, knocked out the cabins which used to accommodate 800 passengers in luxury and built pens for lambs.

Lambs bought from raisers throughout Australia's New South Wales for $200,000 were dipped, inoculated, given foot baths and examined before being put in the pens. They were watered and fed automatically during the trip.

A veterinary team and 38 stockmen attended the baaing passengers on the three-week voyage. After a 15-day quarantine here the lambs will be shipped to Los Angeles for slaughter.

Delfino estimated the lambs could be delibered for slaughter at $10 a head — half the price of U.S.-raised sheep.

W. P. Wing, secretary of the California Wool Growers Assn., said, "The prospect of 30,000 lambs being landed at San Diego and fed out in Southern California already has affected the lamb market."

On the other hand, Nelson R. Crow, publisher of Western Livestock magazine, said:

"When you consider that California, as the largest sheep and lamb slaughtering state, consumes a product of more than two million lambs a year, the importation of 30,000 is hardly a drop in the bucket."

WEEKEND RIOTS

200 Swedish Hot-Rodders Leave Town In Shambles

KRISTIANSTAD, Sweden (UPI) —Two hundred of Sweden's "wild ones" roared out of this small southern Swedish town in souped-up American jalopies today to the relief of the townspeople they had terrorized in violent weekend rioting.

Behind them they left a shambles—razed public restrooms, broken windows, 20 persons in hospitals—and a legacy of fear.

This quiet town of 27,000 straddles the main Stockholm-Malmoe road. Its peaceful squares, cobbled streets and trim lawns never before had been so disturbed.

The mobsters, who idolize Marlon Brando, first hit town early Saturday, apparently to watch the Grand Prix motorcycle races yesterday.

Within minutes their shiny motor bikes and hot-rods were parked all over the place and their leather-jacketed figures began strutting the sidewalks. Fights broke out when they pushed local pedestrians into the gutters. This was the signal for mob rampage.

They swarmed through the temporary camping site set up for the races and started pitched battles with the town's tiny police force.

Police reinforcements rushed from neighboring towns were unable to deal with them. Tents were set ablaze and the fire trucks were bombarded bricks and fire bombs when they tried to get through. Army units were called in.

The mob's girl friends joined in. Several were seen staggering along, drunk, stripped to the waist. The clashes went on until 4 a.m. Sunday. By that time 30 hoodlums had been arrested.

The hot-rodders hung around the town threatening reprisals against the police.

But by that time the police and troops were in full control.

Town officials today said they will refuse to allow future motorcycle events in the town because they draw the gangs.

U.S. To Fire 'Paddlewheel' Satellite Soon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States plans to launch a "paddlewheel" satellite from Cape Canaveral, Fla., around Aug. 7 to test feasibility of using solar power to operate radio equipment aboard space probes to be fired later at the planet Venus.

Reliable sources said today that if the paddlewheel shot is successful that National Aeronautics and Space Administration also plans:

1. To launch a 375 pound-payload toward the moon in early October with the hope that it will go into a lunar orbit.

DEEP SPACE PROBE

2. To fire a deep space probe in November into a trajectory which would take it to the vicinity of Venus if the planet were in a favorable position. Actually, Venus won't be in shooting distance of the earth again until 1961.

Disclosure of these plans followed a report in London that U. S. scientists are at Britain's big Jodrell Bank radio station for an attempt to put a rocket in orbit around the moon "between Aug. 1 and 10."

REPORT WRONG

This report is wrong, it was learned. The Americans are at Jodrell Bank to help track the paddlewheel satellite. Other major tracking stations for this shot are at Cape Canaveral, Hawiii and Singapore, with Goldstone in California and the Millstone Hill station in New Hampshire assisting.

The Space Administration had planned to launch the paddlewheel in an advance of a Venus probe scheduled for last month when the bright planet was in a favorable position. Technical difficulties forced postponement of the Venus shot until 1961, and the paddlewheel experiment also was held up.

SOLAR VANES

The paddlewheel satellite, so-called because it carries solar vanes which will give it somewhat the appearance of a paddlewheel, has now been rescheduled for Aug. 7.

The paddlewheel satellite will be launched into the flattest orbit yet attempted. If all goes well it will extend about 20,000 miles from the earth at its farthest reach and will come within 150 miles at its closest approach.

The satellite will be launched by a three-stage rocket consisting of an Air Force Thor booster with second and third stages developed from the Navy vanguard rocket.

The satellite's elongated orbit will enable it to make repeated samplings of the so-called Van Allen radiation belts around the earth and provide new data on their intensity and extent.

The payload will weigh about 140 pounds. Once the rocket is free of the earth's atmosphere during firing of the second stage, a plastic sheath covering a 29-inch sphere will be jettisoned.

Dixie Senator Delays Bill On Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Southern senator today caused a one-week delay in consideration of a civil rights bill.

Backers of a mild, two-package civil rights proposal approved by a constitutional rights subcommittee, tried to have it considered by the full Judiciary Committee.

But Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-S.C.) exercised a personal privilege and requested a one-week delay. Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss.), an equally staunch civil rights foe, said Johnston's request was granted because it was "the right of any member" to obtain a delay in accordance with long-established committee policy. He added, however, that committee procedure also prohibits any other member from making the same request when the committee meets again next week.

This left the civil rights proposal as the "pending business" before the group. Backers are confident they have enough votes to assure approval once the issue is put to a vote.

Other congressional developments:

INTEREST—Chairman William Martin of the Federal Reserve Board told the Joint Economic Committee that the nation's economic growth has been "materially greater" over the past 10 years than previously believed. He said a revision of the board's industrial production index shows a mid-1959 level substantially higher than reflected in previous figures. He made the statement in explaining the administration's opposition to a compromise plan to raise the interest rate ceiling on government bonds.

HOUSING—Republicans and Democrats on a Senate banking subcommittee differed on who misled whom about President Eisenhower's veto of the housing bill. Chairman John Sparkman (D-Ala.) said testimony last week "clearly demonstrated" that the President's veto message was "misleading in several respects." Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn.) dissented, saying it was actually Democratic attacks on the message that were "misleading and, at best, half truths."

Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.), who believes the message was misleading, contended that the President's advisers had misinformed him and suggested that Congress end the dispute by abolishing the Home and Home Finance Agency.

Today's first witness, Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago, president of the U.S. Conference of Mayors, said the vetoed bill provided a "balanced and fairly comprehensive" housing program. But he did not specifically call on Congress to write it into law over the President's objections.

Big Carrier Arrives At Alameda Today

ALAMEDA (UPI)—The supercarrier Ranger, mightiest warship in the Pacific Fleet, was scheduled to arrive at Alameda Naval Air Station today after a seven-month tour in the western Pacific.

CHP To Eliminate Low-Slung Cars

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Those hot-rods that have been lowered and appear to slide along the road with no visible clearance soon will be a thing of the past.

The California Highway Patrol said today it would start enforcing a new law which forbids extremely lowered cars the minute it goes into effect Sept. 18.

The new law provides that the car itself must not hang lower than the lowermost portion of the rim of the wheel. It was prompted by a Southern California freeway incident in which a lowered car settled bodily on the pavement when it had a flat tire.

Dairyman Hurt When Truck Flips

A Sonoma dairyman suffered serious injuries last night when his westbound pickup truck ran off Lucas Valley road and overturned about five and one-half miles west of Highway 101.

The California Highway Patrol identified the injured driver as Floyd R. Close, 51, of Tule Vista Dairies, Sonoma. His truck was described as a total loss.

Officers said the vehicle left 51 feet of semi-circular skid marks before running off the road at a curve. It skidded another 100 feet beyond the pavement, they reported.

There were no witnesses to the 7:30 p.m. accident. The victim, described as incoherent, was unable to give officers a statement. He was being treated at San Rafael General Hospital today for injuries to his left leg.

Dixie Senator Delays Bill On Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Southern senator today caused a one-week delay in consideration of a civil rights bill.

Backers of a mild, two-package civil rights proposal approved by a constitutional rights subcommittee, tried to have it considered by the full Judiciary Committee.

But Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-S.C.) exercised a personal privilege and requested a one-week delay. Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss.), an equally staunch civil rights foe, said Johnston's request was granted because it was "the right of any member" to obtain a delay in accordance with long-established committee policy. He added, however, that committee procedure also prohibits any other member from making the same request when the committee meets again next week.

This left the civil rights proposal as the "pending business" before the group. Backers are confident they have enough votes to assure approval once the issue is put to a vote.

Other congressional developments:

INTEREST—Chairman William Martin of the Federal Reserve Board told the Joint Economic Committee that the nation's economic growth has been "materially greater" over the past 10 years than previously believed. He said a revision of the board's industrial production index shows a mid-1959 level substantially higher than reflected in previous figures. He made the statement in explaining the administration's opposition to a compromise plan to raise the interest rate ceiling on government bonds.

HOUSING—Republicans and Democrats on a Senate banking subcommittee differed on who misled whom about President Eisenhower's veto of the housing bill. Chairman John Sparkman (D-Ala.) said testimony last week "clearly demonstrated" that the President's veto message was "misleading in several respects." Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn.) dissented, saying it was actually Democratic attacks on the message that were "misleading and, at best, half truths."

Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.), who believes the message was misleading, contended that the President's advisers had misinformed him and suggested that Congress end the dispute by abolishing the Home and Home Finance Agency.

Today's first witness, Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago, president of the U.S. Conference of Mayors, said the vetoed bill provided a "balanced and fairly comprehensive" housing program. But he did not specifically call on Congress to write it into law over the President's objections.

Lost Tot Found Safe In Forest

VISALIA (UPI)—A 3-year-old lightly clad Fresno tot was found today about two miles from where he was reported missing yesterday in the rugged Sierra northeast of here.

Four men on horseback who found Lyle Morse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morse, reported he appeared fine after his ordeal. He was wearing only a T-shirt, shorts and sandals when he disappeared yesterday while playing with his young brother and sister while on a camping trip in the Big Meadow area of Sequoia National Forest.

Big Carrier Arrives At Alameda Today

ALAMEDA (UPI)—The supercarrier Ranger, mightiest warship in the Pacific Fleet, was scheduled to arrive at Alameda Naval Air Station today after a seven-month tour in the western Pacific.

The 76,000-ton carrier, skippered by three-time Navy Cross winner Capt. Noel Gayler, is scheduled to enter the San Francisco Naval Shipyard in early August for post-cruise repairs.

Full-Time Hearing Center Set

Now operating on a part-time basis in San Rafael, the Maico Hearing Center will be open full-time as soon as properly trained personnel are available, it was announced today by George A. Robinson, Maico representative.

The center is located at 1010 B street, Room 332.

Robinson, who also operates a hearing center in Vallejo, was trained at the Maico Electronics Corp. school in Minneapolis and has been associated with the electronic and hearing aid industry for the past 12 years.

He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota.

CHP To Eliminate Low-Slung Cars

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Those hot-rods that have been lowered and appear to slide along the road with no visible clearance soon will be a thing of the past.

The California Highway Patrol said today it would start enforcing a new law which forbids extremely lowered cars the minute it goes into effect Sept. 18.

The new law provides that the car itself must not hang lower than the lowermost portion of the rim of the wheel. It was prompted by a Southern California freeway incident in which a lowered car settled bodily on the pavement when it had a flat tire.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — Steel and chemical shares spearheaded an upswing in stock market prices this afternoon. Trading ran at a moderate rate.

Dairyman Hurt When Truck Flips

A Sonoma dairyman suffered serious injuries last night when his westbound pickup truck ran off Lucas Valley road and overturned about five and one-half miles west of Highway 101.

The California Highway Patrol identified the injured driver as Floyd R. Close, 51, of Tule Vista Dairies, Sonoma. His truck was described as a total loss.

Officers said the vehicle left 51 feet of semi-circular skid marks before running off the road at a curve. It skidded another 100 feet beyond the pavement, they reported.

There were no witnesses to the 7:30 p.m. accident. The victim, described as incoherent, was unable to give officers a statement. He was being treated at San Rafael General Hospital today for injuries to his left leg.

DOMINICAN CONCERT

Gwen Curatilo Shows Lyric Soprano Voice

By MAYBELLE SPECKMAN

An enthusiastic audience was loath to let soprano Gwen Curatilo leave the stage at the conclusion of her concert Friday evening in Dominican College's Angelico Hall auditorium.

Her program of compositions by 17th Century to contemporary composers was well chosen to reveal the special lyric qualities of her evenly developed voice, which has great tonal beauty, particularly in the upper register and in the minor mode. Her intonation was good.

In the four songs by early composers, such as Purcell, Scarlatti and Handel, that opened her program, the flexibility of the young San Rafael singer's voice was notable. It was especially so in Handel's "Oh! Had I Jubal's Lyre." This characteristic was also demonstrated to advantage in Manuel de Falla's two folk tunes.

Her group of Schumann songs sung in German was tastefully interpreted.

Mrs. Curatilo's ability to convey contrasting moods — illustrated in her rendition of Rachmaninoff, de Falla, Hageman and Vaughn Williams songs—was even more evident in the operatic arias "Ave Maria" from Verdi's "Otello" and the famous "Vissi d'Arte" from Puccinis "Tosca."

The full power of her voice in this last selection, plus the lovely picture she made in her bouffant white lace evening gown, showed her potentialities in operatic roles.

The only noticeable flaws in a generally fine performance were predominant "S" consonants—except when they were easier to avoid in Italian—and lack of clarity in diction in some passages.

The young artist's long experience in singing with pianist Stephanie Shehatovich's complementary accompaniment was apparent.

For encores, in addition to the aria from "Tosca," she sang two folk songs, the Irish "I Know Where I'm Going" and "Black Is the Color of My True Love's Hair."

Three Youths Seized On Liquor Count

Marin County sheriff's deputies arrested three youths on charges of illegal drinking early Saturday after receiving reports of a disturbance at Burge's Drive-In at Ignacio.

Booked on the liquor charges were Walter Melvin Starrett, 18, of 7 Millbrae avenue, San Anselmo; Frederick Elijah Whitman, 19, of 20 Venus court, Belveron Gardens, and Ronald Leon Slack, 18, of 39 Shell road, Alto.

An unidentified waitress at Burge's told deputies one suspect, not specified in the report, had bloodied the nose of a male patron who obpected to obscenities she said the trio had shouted at waitresses. She took their license number when they drove off.

Officers said they arrested the youths when the car reappeared shortly after 1 a.m.

According to the deputies' report, Starrett, asked who obtained liquor for him and his companions, replied with sarcasm that it was bought in Marin City by "a tall, short, fat and skinny Negro with white teeth."

Starrett's wallet contained a Selective Service registration card made out to a John L. Norton, 26, of Eureka. The youth said he had found the card, deputies reported.

The three were released on $100 bail each and ordered to appear in Marin Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. today.

A free polio vaccination clinic will be conducted from 7 to 9 p.m. tomorrow by the county health department at its offices at 920 Grand avenue, San Rafael. There will be a similar clinic Aug. 25.

Shots are urged for all who have not had at least the first two, as the polio rate is climbing despite effectiveness of the Salk vaccine, said Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer.

Muscular Paralysis Often Caused By Defective Spine

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Most of us are familiar with muscles like the biceps and triceps in the upper arm, and the thigh and calf muscles, but few of us are aware that there are nearly 700 muscles in the human body. The great majority of these are in pairs evenly distributed from scalp to toes and fingertips.

The muscles which move or act when we want them to are known as the striped muscles. They are the visible muscles which cover the body surface and the limbs. Some muscle tissue, however, is subject to the commands of nature only, and these are the smooth muscles. The heart muscle is a good example because it keeps on working under the guidance of nature whether we're asleep or awake, conscious or unconscious.

All muscles rely on the nervous system for the source of their power. A vast network of nerves supplies every single muscle with vital energy from the brain. The nerve supply to a group of muscles sometimes will fail and paralysis occurs.

The cause of the failure often will be found in the spine where a spinal bone (vertebra) has been pushed out of line. The misplaced bone may be pinching the nerve which supplies the paralyzed muscle. Fortunately, such conditions often can be corrected by Chiropractic.

Chiropractors are specialists in finding and correcting nerve interference in the spine painlessly and efficiently by means of hand adjustments. If the interference is corrected in time, before permanent damage can occur, the nerve once again will convey its full quota of power to the affected muscle. The paralyzed muscles then will regain much, if not all, of their former strength and usefulness.

What Will Be Effect Of Marin-Vallejo Freeway?

At long last the completion of a freeway linking Highway 101 at Ignacio with Highway 40 near Vallejo is in sight.

State highway engineers have recommended to the California Highway Commission that the final 2.3 mile link be constructed in the near future. It presumably will be a year or two before the commission can budget the funds, estimated at $4.6 million.

What will this mean to Marin?

First, Marin will be almost within commuting distance of Sacramento. At present, there are two roadblocks that make it difficult to visit the capitol. You must first get over to Highway 40 by the tortuous 2-lane route across the marshlands to a point just north of Vallejo. Later you must fight your way through Sacramento downtown traffic.

Completion of the freeway will solve the former problem; the latter remains to be met.

Concurrently, Marin will be nearer Lake Tahoe and other Sierra vacation areas.

At the same time, it will be easier for residents of the hot inland valleys to spend cool summer weekends along Marin's beautiful seashore. We rather expect to find the number of valley people among us on weekends will increase substantially in the years ahead.

Vallejo commuters? Maybe you are not aware of it but commute traffic is brisk both ways. Shipyard workers and others live here and work in Vallejo. Hamilton Field personnel and others live in Vallejo and commute here. They all will benefit by a shorter, faster, easier trip.

It will be interesting to see if Sacramento-San Francisco traffic finds it easier to travel via Marin. The new Highway 40 freeway is progressing in the East Bay, but traffic is increasing rapidly. It is just possible that, at least during rush hours, Sacramento-San Francisco motorists will find it preferable to travel through Marin instead of the East Bay.

What, if anything, does all this mean to us economically?

Probably not much except for certain roadside businesses like service stations and restaurants who may enjoy increases in volume.

But aside from economics, there will be other changes. Traffic on 101 will increase even more.

Marin will change. It never will be the same again.

But it's changing all the time anyhow. The freeway to Vallejo will merely hurry the process, while making it more convenient for those of us who have occasion to drive from here over to Highway 40.

HOW TO WRITE AN EFFECTIVE LETTER

You can help shape public opinion if you take the trouble to write constructive letters to those in positions of influence. He are a few tips:

1. BE OBJECTIVE. Stick to the truth. Back up your opinions with facts. Exaggerations, emotional outbursts or extremes of any kind detract from your point and often cause a letter to be dropped unread into the waste basket.

2. THINK THINGS THROUGH. Rather than dash off a few meaningless lines take a few moments to clarify and coordinate your your thoughts. This practice will add punch to your words.

3. WRITE PROMPTLY: DON'T DELAY. A brief note of praise or constructive criticism dispatched without delay makes a far greater impace than one sent when an issue is practically forgotten. Furthermore, postponement often means "never sent."

God wants you to show a personal responsibility towards the world in which you live. Letter writing can help you exert an influence for good.

Tejon Ranch Co., 168,531 acres.

Gov. Brown has made much of the fact that the users of the water and power will pay for 97 per cent of the project. That is true. But there is all the difference in the world between a land user and a land holder. It's the difference between a tenant and an absentee landlord. By making water and power available to these areas, the land in these areas is made more productive, i. e., the users of this land will gladly pay more for the right to use it. Isn't it fitting and proper, therefore, to have the landholder pay this increased value to the state? Then, in the cases where landholder and landuser are the same person, the true beneficiary of the project will pay for the project. And in those cases where the landholder and landuser are not the same person, there will be no unjust enrichment of the landholder at the expense of the land user.

Gov. Brown is trying to sell this plan to use as a "program of responsible liberalism." But until he takes steps to make the landholder pay for the benefits he receives, it looks more to me like a program of irresponsible liberality with the taxpayer's money.

U.S. Should Make Every Effort To Get Along Well With Castro

SHORTLY AFTER Dr. Castro brought his revolution to power in Cuba, the governor of Puerto Rico, Mr. Munoz-Marin, came up to Washington.

He came to give us advice which he was pre-eminently qualified to do. For he had been carrying through successfully a peaceable revolution in his own country, he had the personal confidence of the Cuban revolutionists, and he was and is our very great friend.

Even then, at the beginning, he foresaw the troubles in Cuba, the stubborn difficulties against which the revolution was waged and which it then inherited, the inexperience and the emotional instability of its fighting leaders.

Whatever you do, he said in effect, do not let yourselves become enemies of this revolution. For this revolution is the real thing. It is not a mere change of the guard at the top as is so common in Latin America. This is a popular revolution of the sort which, more than thirty years ago, Mexico went through, and after years of blood and tears brought to a happy ending.

IT REQUIRES great skill to manage our relations with a revolution of this character in a country which is such a very near neighbor.

We have to find ways of reconciling our political and economic interests with a revolution which cannot be stabilized until the chief grievances which produced the revolution have been redressed. This can be managed only if the American Ambassador in Havana can work out a relationship with the revolutionary leaders in which they will listen to him, and even seek his advice and his help.

There is good reason to say that we have such an Ambassador in Havana, one who is capable of carrying out such a delicate mission, who has, one might say, "good hands" when he rides. But, of course, he has no chance whatever of succeeding if Congress is going to roughhouse our relations with Cuba, as did the Internal Security Sub-Committee of the Senate just the other day. This was when it provided a platform and loudspeakers for a disaffected Cuban adventurer to denounce the Cuban revolutionists as Communists. This country, as the President was quick to point out, "has made no such charges." But the damage done by the Sub-Committee's irresponsible meddling may not be repaired easily or quickly.

THE POLICY which we are following in Cuba is to avoid a break with Dr. Castro and to seek more contact with him.

This policy is the product of years of experience in our relations with the other American states. There is no alternative to it, given the fact that we have most solemnly renounced the right of intervention to suppress a revolution. In this century, we have committed ourselves repeatedly and wholly to the principle that each country in this hemisphere has the right of self-determination. This carries with it inseparably the right of revolution, and imposes upon us the obligation to live with the revolutions, when they occur, as best we can.

Beneath these large generalizations and abstractions, there is the substantial fact that in this century, which is seeing the awakening of the submerged masses of mankind, the old style of imperialism and overlordship is not only morally unacceptable but is practically impossible. To put it specifically and bluntly, the United States could not install a puppet to govern Cuba in place of Dr. Castro and his revolutionists. The United States must, therefore, do what it can to keep on good terms with Dr. Castro and his successors.

Where's Acacia Street? Well, It Depends On Which You Mean

TO CONTINUE the editorial campaign being waged by our editor against the similarity of street names in Marin, we took a few minutes to verify his contentions. In this short time, we found Acacia used six times; Ash, five; Alta, five; Alta Vista, three and a seeming unending number of combinations of Bay! Bayview, Bay View, Bay Vista and Baywood. It's bad enough for a reporter to find these places. It must be tough for a fire department taking an excited phone call about a fire to locate the spot.

THE OTHER DAY, Sausalito police Sgt. Stan Kelly walked into the city hall only to have a citizen comment, "Where have you been all this time? Didn't know you were still in the department." Only for the past 10 days has Kelly been around in the daylight. For the past six years, he's been on the midnight to 8 a.m. shift.

WE LAY NO CLAIM to being an art expert or critic. However, we did take a fleeting look at the current one-man exhibit now being presented by Sausalito's Leonard Carvajal whose portraits and life studies were so impressive as to cause us to recommend his work to those who know much more about it than we do.

WHEN COMPLAINTS about prevalent poison oak in Mill Valley came up at a recent parks and recreation commission meeting, not all were in favor of drastic eradication steps. Joe Penders, keeper of everything green in Mill Valley, for example, noted that the shrub was beautiful and what's more, it holds the soil against erosion. Not having a ready solution in the matter, the commission passed on to other affairs.

THAT FILLING-IN activity opposite Marin City which has caused some unhappiness on its questionable appearance, started more tongue wagging last week as a huge sign was erected out on the fill reading "Kappas Yacht Harbor." No yachts visible yet, but George Kappas announced long ago that the filling operation contemplated a future yacht harbor. Haven't heard whether his sign conforms to existing regulations.

Professional Sports Seek Anti-Trust Law Immunity

By Congressional Quarterly

WASHINGTON (CQ)—Baseball and other professional sports will go to bat tomorrow in the Senate for special treatment under the Federal anti-trust laws.

The sports hearings, the first of the new Congress, will be before Sen. Estes Kefauver's (D-Tenn.) Anti-trust and Monopoly Subcommittee. They are expected to last four days. Lead-off witness will be Commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League.

Nobody has too much about what Bell and the other members of the sports hierarchy will say. Last year owners of baseball, basketball, football and hockey teams said they could not live without some immunity from the anti-trust laws.

Up to now, only professional baseball has enjoyed such immunity. That is because in 1922 the Supreme Court ruled that baseball games were "purely state affairs" and therefore out of reach of the Federal anti-trust laws.

The Supreme Court in subsequent decisions refused to put the same legal umbrella over other professional team sports. So now basketball, football and hockey want Congress to end the discrimination. They take a "what is good for the goose is good for the gander" attitude.

The Supreme Court in later opinions has made it clear it would be delighted to have Congress upset its 1922 baseball immunity decision with legislation. The Kefauver Subcommittee after this week's hearings will try to get together on such legislation.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE has two rival bills to work with—one sponsored by Sen. Thomas C. Hennings Jr. (D-Mo.) and the other by Kefauver. Hennings' bill would sanction most of the agreements among owners now in force. It would do this by giving those arrangements immunity from the anti-trust laws.

Without such protection, ball club owners claim they would go broke defending themselves in court from anti-trust suits brought by discontented players and others. The club owners say that although their practices may look monopolistic, they actually increase competition. The owners cite baseball's reserve clause and football's college draft.

The reserve clause binds a baseball player to his team until the management wants to let him go. The player cannot shop around for better offers from other major league teams in the meantime. Without such a clause, the owners say good players would desert the team that signed them and go to the highest bidder. They claim this would kill off competition by putting all the best players on a few wealthy teams.

The college draft is a system that puts the fate of college foootball stars in the hands of the National Football League. The college stars are divvied up at a meeting of the club owners, with the weakest team getting first choice. The player himself cannot choose his team nor set his salary. Again the owners argue this system is needed to assure keen competition within the league.

Unlike the Hennings bill, the Kefauver proposal would not give blanket anti-trust exemption to these and other sports practices. Kefauver's bill, for example, would empower a college star to shop around instead of consenting to be drafted. If the club owners blacklisted the player, he could under Kefauver's bill sue the league.

The Hennings bill is the one the club owners prefer.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

What Will Be Effect Of Marin-Vallejo Freeway?

At long last the completion of a freeway linking Highway 101 at Ignacio with Highway 40 near Vallejo is in sight.

State highway engineers have recommended to the California Highway Commission that the final 2.3 mile link be constructed in the near future. It presumably will be a year or two before the commission can budget the funds, estimated at $4.6 million.

What will this mean to Marin?

First, Marin will be almost within commuting distance of Sacramento. At present, there are two roadblocks that make it difficult to visit the capitol. You must first get over to Highway 40 by the tortuous 2-lane route across the marshlands to a point just north of Vallejo. Later you must fight your way through Sacramento downtown traffic.

Completion of the freeway will solve the former problem; the latter remains to be met.

Concurrently, Marin will be nearer Lake Tahoe and other Sierra vacation areas.

At the same time, it will be easier for residents of the hot inland valleys to spend cool summer weekends along Marin's beautiful seashore. We rather expect to find the number of valley people among us on weekends will increase substantially in the years ahead.

Vallejo commuters? Maybe you are not aware of it but commute traffic is brisk both ways. Shipyard workers and others live here and work in Vallejo. Hamilton Field personnel and others live in Vallejo and commute here. They all will benefit by a shorter, faster, easier trip.

It will be interesting to see if Sacramento-San Francisco traffic finds it easier to travel via Marin. The new Highway 40 freeway is progressing in the East Bay, but traffic is increasing rapidly. It is just possible that, at least during rush hours, Sacramento-San Francisco motorists will find it preferable to travel through Marin instead of the East Bay.

What, if anything, does all this mean to us economically?

Probably not much except for certain roadside businesses like service stations and restaurants who may enjoy increases in volume.

But aside from economics, there will be other changes. Traffic on 101 will increase even more.

Marin will change. It never will be the same again.

But it's changing all the time anyhow. The freeway to Vallejo will merely hurry the process, while making it more convenient for those of us who have occasion to drive from here over to Highway 40.

HOW TO WRITE AN EFFECTIVE LETTER

You can help shape public opinion if you take the trouble to write constructive letters to those in positions of influence. He are a few tips:

1. BE OBJECTIVE. Stick to the truth. Back up your opinions with facts. Exaggerations, emotional outbursts or extremes of any kind detract from your point and often cause a letter to be dropped unread into the waste basket.

2. THINK THINGS THROUGH. Rather than dash off a few meaningless lines take a few moments to clarify and coordinate your your thoughts. This practice will add punch to your words.

3. WRITE PROMPTLY: DON'T DELAY. A brief note of praise or constructive criticism dispatched without delay makes a far greater impace than one sent when an issue is practically forgotten. Furthermore, postponement often means "never sent."

God wants you to show a personal responsibility towards the world in which you live. Letter writing can help you exert an influence for good.

American Cows Too Contented? They're Lagging In Production

Are American cows getting soft? Are they too contented? They now lag behind the cows of six other countries in milk production. The average U. S. cow produces only 6,300 pounds of milk a year, compared to 9,040 pounds for a cow in Holland, the world leader.

Gromyko Asked If He'll Cut Berlin Terms

GENEVA (AP) — British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd was reported to have sounded out Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko today on whether Russia will make any cut in its terms for a Berlin deal.

Lloyd held a luncheon conference with Gromyko which lasted more than two hours.

NINTH WEEK

As the East-West conference went into its ninth week of negotiations, a crowded schedule of talks also called for strategy consultations among the Western foreign ministers and a Big Four secret session at the end of the day.

When the luncheon at Lloyd's residence ended Gromyko was asked whether there was any progress toward East-West agreement. He replied, pointing to Lloyd, "You had better ask the minister."

Lloyd had no comment.

The United States and France have been reported standing firm against British pressure to cut down on Western terms for a Berlin agreement in order to clear the way for a summit conference.

Associates said U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter is still determined to try to get an agreement from the Soviets Andrei A. Gromyko to protect West Berlin. He is reported equally determined not to accept any deal which will put a deadline on Allied rights there.

Lloyd, who conferred with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan over the weekend, reportedly believes that limited assurances already offered by Gromyko are the best the West can hope for and should be accepted conditionally.

EVEN THE FISH IN RED CHINA ARE LIVING IN COMMUNES

TOKYO (UPI)—The English-language magazine Peking Review says Red China is increasing its fish output by converting ponds into "apartment houses," with different kinds of fish living on different floors.

"A pond occupied by the carp family, for instance, has the common carp living on the ground floor, the silver carp on the top, and black and grass carp in the middle," the magazine reports.

Since these fish naturally thrive in different depths, there's no danger intermingling.

Peking Review claims that you can get eight to ten times as many fish into a pond this way. There's another advantage, too:

"Since the common carp on the bottom floor is not so choosy, the excretions of the other carp higher up become its natural food, thus saving on the feed."

Sears Catalogs, U.S. Guides Wow Russians At Exhibition

MOSCOW (UPI)—Two of the biggest hits at the U.S. exhibition in Moscow are the Sears Roebuck catalog and the Russian-speaking American guides.

Russians have shown their enthusiasm for the exhibition that opened Saturday by climbing over the fence and crashing through the turnstile gate to see what the Americans have.

Bearded peasants in traditional blue belted tunics jostled pretty girls in modern summer cotton dresses to examine electric blankets and adding machines.

But one smash success were the Sears Roebuck catalogs which were placed on reading racks and attached to the wall.

The Russians have almost a schoolboy crush on the Russian-speaking American guides in the exhibition. They are eager to make friends with the guides as well as compete with them in arguments.

Mrs. Nixon Outpaces Mrs. Kozlov

LENINGRAD (AP)—Mrs. Richard M. Nixon today made a rapid tour through sections of Leningrad's big Hermitage Museum, which houses one of the world's leading collections of European paintings and sculpture.

Going along with her, but having a hard time keeping up as they went through rooms which once were part of the Winter Palace of the czars, was Mrs. Frol R. Kozlov, wife of a Soviet first deputy premier.

Mrs. Kozlov was wearing a lavender dress and medium-heel white shoes. She had to sit down to rest at one point, but Mrs. Nixon strode rapidly through scores of galleries in her high heeled leather pumps.

She saw some of the large collection of Rembrandts. They are housed in some of the 1,500 exhibit rooms of the museum, said to rank with the Louvre.

However, Mrs. Nixon seemed to take little interest in the paintings, although she was struck by one big portrait of Czar Alexander 1 on horseback.

Marin Arrest Reveals $4,000 In Jewelry

About $4,000 worth of jewelry was found in the home of a San Francisco burglary suspect Saturday after his alleged accomplice, driving a car loaded with burglar's tools, was arrested in Marin County.

Deputies David Greeson and William Bradford of the Marin sheriff's office took Frank Hoyt Barter Jr., 32-year-old San Franciscan, into custody at 3:40 a.m. Saturday near Del Mar Estates on the Tiburon Peninsula.

The officers said they stopped Barter because he was driving erratically and they suspected he might be intoxicated. He wasn't, but he had no plausible reasons for being in the area, they reported.

With his consent, they searched the vehicle, finding the burglar tools, a nine-inch dagger and an obscene device.

Barter was taken to the county jail and booked on charges of carrying a concealed weapon, possessing burglar tools and vagrancy. The officers said he proved to have a long record of arrests for grand larceny, burglary, auto theft and petty theft.

Under questioning, the suspect claimed he obtained the burglar's tools from Edward Kozakovich, 45-year-old San Francisco painter.

Sheriff's Inspector Richard Argento and a San Francisco police inspector later went to Kozakovich's home on Otsego avenue and found a quantity of jewelry. Included in the cache were a diamond ring, several necklaces and diamond earrings.

Kozakovich was booked in San Francisco on five counts of receiving stolen goods.

The tools confiscated from Barter's car included wire cutters, sledge hammer, brace and bit, punch chisel, glass cutters and skin-tight leather gloves.

Arson Try Reported

A case of attempted arson was reported to the Marin County sheriff's office Saturday by a Strawberry Point woman who found a burning newspaper and what appeared to be a fuse at her doorstep at 6:30 a.m.

Miss Shirley C. Titus, 67, of 303 Walter drive, said her mailman discovered that a small fire also had been set in her mailbox.

Neighbors of Miss Titus also reported suspicious circumstances to Deputy Sheriff Ed Mauberet. Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hellman of 207 Meda court said they heard someone running along a nearby concrete storm drain about 5:30 a.m. Saturday.

Joseph H. O'Reilly, who lives next door to Miss Titus, said his telephone had rung twice, but each time the caller had remained silent.

Gromyko Asked If He'll Cut Berlin Terms

GENEVA (AP) — British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd was reported to have sounded out Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko today on whether Russia will make any cut in its terms for a Berlin deal.

Lloyd held a luncheon conference with Gromyko which lasted more than two hours.

NINTH WEEK

As the East-West conference went into its ninth week of negotiations, a crowded schedule of talks also called for strategy consultations among the Western foreign ministers and a Big Four secret session at the end of the day.

When the luncheon at Lloyd's residence ended Gromyko was asked whether there was any progress toward East-West agreement. He replied, pointing to Lloyd, "You had better ask the minister."

Lloyd had no comment.

STANDING FIRM

The United States and France have been reported standing firm against British pressure to cut down on Western terms for a Berlin agreement in order to clear the way for a summit conference.

Associates said U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter is still determined to try to get an agreement from the Soviets Andrei A. Gromyko to protect West Berlin. He is reported equally determined not to accept any deal which will put a deadline on Allied rights there.

Lloyd, who conferred with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan over the weekend, reportedly believes that limited assurances already offered by Gromyko are the best the West can hope for and should be accepted conditionally.

2nd THREATENS

Resort Area Fire Under Firm Control

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A forest fire which had threatened resort areas in Santa Cruz County was under firm control today, fire-fighters reported, but another northwest of Redding still held a threat to the Shasta-Trinity National Forest.

The fire in the Santa Cruz mountains near Ben Lomond started Saturday. The first line around it was completed at 6 p.m. yesterday after it had burned over 1,200 acres of brush. At 10 p.m. the fire crews started backfire operations and by midnight it was under what was described as "firm control."

425 FIRE-FIGHTERS

The fire-fighters, numbering about 425, were being held through today to make sure the blaze doesn't flare again.

Heavy fog during the night and this morning was a positive factor in bringing it under control.

The Shasta-Trinity fire, along Ramshorn Creek about 55 miles from Redding, was the most dangerous of the three major weekend fires in the northern and central counties.

THIRD FIRE

The third fire burned over 15,000 acres of grass land, brush and juniper 35 miles north of Susanville in Lassen County before it was contained.

The Shasta-Trinity fire, which started Saturday afternoon from a fisherman's campfire, broke away yesterday afternoon when wind carried embers started new blazes across fire lines.

By last night the fire had burned over 1,000 acres of timber, reported Joe Noble, federal forest service dispatcher at Redding.

Hamilton Reservists Show Skill In Idaho Troop Drop

Twenty planes of the wing flew low over Gowen Air National Guard base Saturday morning to drop 200 paratroopers of the 101st Airborne Division with equipment into the mythical land of "West Moravia" under attack by "enemy rebels."

The exercise came during the first of two weeks of summer active duty for the wing at the Idaho base. The wing is commanded by Brig. Gen. Rollin B. Moore Jr., a full-time reservist from Orinda who has his headquarters at Hamilton.

The wing is composed of squadrons based at Hamilton, McClellan Air Force Base in Sacramento, and at Portland, Ore.

Planes used by the wing are Fairchild C119 troop carriers, probably the most powerful two-engine support plane ever purchased by the Air Force.

Chief navigator for the flight was Maj. John P. Lippit of Larkspur. The first plane over the drop zone threw out a wind-testing dummy. The next wave of aircraft, led by General Moore, dropped heavy equipment. The next wave carried the airborne troops. The last wave dropped additional heavy equipment, such as small trucks and howitzers.

Three paratroopers suffered minor injuries in the jump, which officers said was about normal for a 240-man jump.

Visitors Hurt In Rear-End Auto Crash

A carload of out-of-town visitors, confused by the San Rafael-Drake boulevard turnoff sign west of the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge was struck in the rear by another car at 10:40 a.m. Saturday, resulting in minor injuries to three persons, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Adolph John Peters, 54, of Chicago, was westbound on Highway 17 and was slowing down while trying to decide if he took the correct turnoff, reported CHP Officer Donald Greer. His car was struck in the rear by the auto of Grant Harold Merrick, 56, an El Cerrito plasterer. Peters was cited for impeding traffic and Merrick was cited for unsafe speed.

NOT NUDE, WORE SHOES

MARTINEZ (UPI)—It was purely a question of defintion yesterday when a former sheriff's aid denied that a stag show he alleged promoted was lewd.

"I particularly resent the implication that there was a nude show," said Raymond D. Van Tassel, 55, referring to charges that women were not properly dressed.

Woman Knocked Over By Buffalo

She was holding up her 1-year-old grandson to look at the buffaloes in Golden Gate Park when one of them lunged against the fence.

The impact knocked Mrs. Blacha to the ground. The child wasn't hurt, but his grandmother was treated for stomach bruises.

Adult Classes Show Growth

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state department of Education reports that there has been continuous growth in adult education programs in California.

Academic subjects, business education, trade and industrial arts, homemaking and parent education, and citizenship and English for the foreign born account for 75 per cent of all adult education enrollments.

Department surveys indicate that at the end of the 1958-59 school year, there were issued 1,451 elementary certificates, 10,593 high school diplomas and 2,027 junior college degrees. The total, 14,071, was reported a 23 per cent increase over the number of similar documents and degrees granted in the 1957-58 school year.

Nurse At Exercises

Maj. Marion M. O'Neal, in civilian life head nurse with Kaiser Foundation Clinic in San Rafael, is participating in annual summer training exercises at Ft. Ord Army Hospital. She is chief nurse of the 346th General Hospital during the encampment.

ADULT EDUCATION

College Policy Seed May Grow

(First of a series)
By DONALD G. DAVIS

It appears there will be a meeting of minds between Dr. Samuel N. LeCount, head of the College of Marin adult education department, and the district board of trustees.

Meeting together in an informal session to hear what LeCount proposes about College of Marin adult education in particular, and education in general, the trustees have planted a seed of policy that may grow into an expanded college system.

The session, called at LeCount's request, may not have produced absolute mutual empathy between LeCount on the one hand, and the board on the other, but it established rapport between LeCount and majority of board members.

There were two important exchanges:

1. LeCount asked for and received informal approval of plans to form an advisory committee on adult education, and to set up a community survey on the needs in that department.

2. The board asked for and received a promise from LeCount that he will produce a detailed breakdown on costs of education, contracts, tenure, retirement and credentials. (The board, however, will seek county counsel's opinion on tenure. The board apparently wants to avoid a situation similar to the one created when the San Quentin program was dropped, and teachers, who claimed they had tenure, sued after they were not given other jobs.)

But LeCount's presentation, one which he said he wanted to give the board since he started work in the adult education department almost 10 years ago, covered a lot of territory.

He told trustees his philosophy of education, and he asked for a number of policy decisions. Trustees' comments ranged from approval to downright disapproval. But with a majority of the board indicating approval, LeCount, in time, may be able to propose a broader educational program.

In speaking of educational philosophy behind a community college, he said: "I firmly believe in what seems to be current California educational philosophy. The University of California is moving more toward professional training; the state colleges toward sub-professional, and the colleges, such as the College of Marin, attempting to meet the needs of local people.

"I see adult education as an integral part of the community college, that is, in a broadened concept. The college is primarily for 18 to 20-year-olds but it should be broadened to include adults.

"I propose we could include meetings or conferences with community betterments as the objective. I would like to see meetings on the campus that would deal with the improvement of Marin County."

Trustee George G. Washburn hammered at the idea that the college should be primarily concerned with educating the young people. He said he thought adults should pay their own way. Washburn took several adult education classes at the College of Marin before he was elected a trustee. "I felt like I was stealing something," he said.

While he did not entirely dismiss adult education, Washburn scoffed at some ideas.

"Is it right to teach people how to make lampshades and drapes?" he asked.

Executive Charged In Ross Accident

Officers said Pomeroy, 40, drove off after sideswiping a parked car at 12:37 a.m. at Magnolia avenue and Ward street in Larkspur.

Pomeroy, president of J. H. Pomeroy and Co. construction and engineering firm, is to appear before Municipal Judge Richard M. Sims at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Patrolman John Cottle reported he saw Pomeroy's car strike the other vehicle, then weave down the street.

When stopped, Pomeroy at first denied hitting the other car, but later said he might have, police reported. The right side of his car was damaged and paint scrapings matched paint on the parked car, they said.

Locked up in Marin County Jail after taking a blood alcohol test, the executive was released at 2:30 a.m. when a friend paid his $368 bail in cash.

Pomeroy, who is also a director of Pacific National Bank, lives in Ross on Newell road, a street named after a member of his family.

Laundry Sold At Mill Valley

The Mill Valley French Laundry at 138 E. Blithedale avenue has been sold by Mrs. Lois Lerst to Alvin and La Verne Baudour of Pacific Grove.

Mrs. Lerst and her late husband took over the laundry about five years ago. Mrs. Lerst said she plans to travel before returning to an apartment in Corte Madera.

Teacher Up For Approval

Certification of a new second grade teacher at the Yolansdale School will be among the items of business scheduled to come before the regular meeting of the San Anselmo School District trustees at the Isabel Cook school tonight at 8.

The teacher, whose approval has been recommended by the board, is Mrs. Ethel Bauer, former fifth grade teacher in Seattle.

Also on the agenda is a review of fire insurance proposals, organization of a tax increase committee and a review of the administrative handbook.

Motel Guest Loses Articles To Thief

The theft of a wrist watch, wallet and check book from a room in the Starlight Motel north of San Rafael was reported to the Marin County sheriff's office yesterday by Harold A. Arvidson, 62-year-old salesman.

Arvidson, employed by the Jewel Co., said the thief pushed open his unlocked door, reached in and stole the articles as he slept.

2nd THREATENS

Resort Area Fire Under Firm Control

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A forest fire which had threatened resort areas in Santa Cruz County was under firm control today, fire-fighters reported, but another northwest of Redding still held a threat to the Shasta-Trinity National Forest.

The fire in the Santa Cruz mountains near Ben Lomond started Saturday. The first line around it was completed at 6 p.m. yesterday after it had burned over 1,200 acres of brush. At 10 p.m. the fire crews started backfire operations and by midnight it was under what was described as "firm control."

425 FIRE-FIGHTERS

The fire-fighters, numbering about 425, were being held through today to make sure the blaze doesn't flare again.

Heavy fog during the night and this morning was a positive factor in bringing it under control.

The Shasta-Trinity fire, along Ramshorn Creek about 55 miles from Redding, was the most dangerous of the three major weekend fires in the northern and central counties.

THIRD FIRE

The third fire burned over 15,000 acres of grass land, brush and juniper 35 miles north of Susanville in Lassen County before it was contained.

The Shasta-Trinity fire, which started Saturday afternoon from a fisherman's campfire, broke away yesterday afternoon when wind carried embers started new blazes across fire lines.

By last night the fire had burned over 1,000 acres of timber, reported Joe Noble, federal forest service dispatcher at Redding.

Hamilton Reservists Show Skill In Idaho Troop Drop

Twenty planes of the wing flew low over Gowen Air National Guard base Saturday morning to drop 200 paratroopers of the 101st Airborne Division with equipment into the mythical land of "West Moravia" under attack by "enemy rebels."

The exercise came during the first of two weeks of summer active duty for the wing at the Idaho base. The wing is commanded by Brig. Gen. Rollin B. Moore Jr., a full-time reservist from Orinda who has his headquarters at Hamilton.

The wing is composed of squadrons based at Hamilton, McClellan Air Force Base in Sacramento, and at Portland, Ore.

Planes used by the wing are Fairchild C119 troop carriers, probably the most powerful two-engine support plane ever purchased by the Air Force.

Chief navigator for the flight was Maj. John P. Lippit of Larkspur. The first plane over the drop zone threw out a wind-testing dummy. The next wave of aircraft, led by General Moore, dropped heavy equipment. The next wave carried the airborne troops. The last wave dropped additional heavy equipment, such as small trucks and howitzers.

Three paratroopers suffered minor injuries in the jump, which officers said was about normal for a 240-man jump.

Visitors Hurt In Rear-End Auto Crash

A carload of out-of-town visitors, confused by the San Rafael-Drake boulevard turnoff sign west of the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge was struck in the rear by another car at 10:40 a.m. Saturday, resulting in minor injuries to three persons, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Adolph John Peters, 54, of Chicago, was westbound on Highway 17 and was slowing down while trying to decide if he took the correct turnoff, reported CHP Officer Donald Greer. His car was struck in the rear by the auto of Grant Harold Merrick, 56, an El Cerrito plasterer. Peters was cited for impeding traffic and Merrick was cited for unsafe speed.

NOT NUDE, WORE SHOES

MARTINEZ (UPI)—It was purely a question of defintion yesterday when a former sheriff's aid denied that a stag show he alleged promoted was lewd.

"I particularly resent the implication that there was a nude show," said Raymond D. Van Tassel, 55, referring to charges that women were not properly dressed.

Woman Knocked Over By Buffalo

She was holding up her 1-year-old grandson to look at the buffaloes in Golden Gate Park when one of them lunged against the fence.

The impact knocked Mrs. Blacha to the ground. The child wasn't hurt, but his grandmother was treated for stomach bruises.

Adult Classes Show Growth

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state department of Education reports that there has been continuous growth in adult education programs in California.

Academic subjects, business education, trade and industrial arts, homemaking and parent education, and citizenship and English for the foreign born account for 75 per cent of all adult education enrollments.

Department surveys indicate that at the end of the 1958-59 school year, there were issued 1,451 elementary certificates, 10,593 high school diplomas and 2,027 junior college degrees. The total, 14,071, was reported a 23 per cent increase over the number of similar documents and degrees granted in the 1957-58 school year.

ADULT EDUCATION

College Policy Seed May Grow

(First of a series)
By DONALD G. DAVIS

It appears there will be a meeting of minds between Dr. Samuel N. LeCount, head of the College of Marin adult education department, and the district board of trustees.

Meeting together in an informal session to hear what LeCount proposes about College of Marin adult education in particular, and education in general, the trustees have planted a seed of policy that may grow into an expanded college system.

The session, called at LeCount's request, may not have produced absolute mutual empathy between LeCount on the one hand, and the board on the other, but it established rapport between LeCount and majority of board members.

There were two important exchanges:

1. LeCount asked for and received informal approval of plans to form an advisory committee on adult education, and to set up a community survey on the needs in that department.

2. The board asked for and received a promise from LeCount that he will produce a detailed breakdown on costs of education, contracts, tenure, retirement and credentials. (The board, however, will seek county counsel's opinion on tenure. The board apparently wants to avoid a situation similar to the one created when the San Quentin program was dropped, and teachers, who claimed they had tenure, sued after they were not given other jobs.)

But LeCount's presentation, one which he said he wanted to give the board since he started work in the adult education department almost 10 years ago, covered a lot of territory.

He told trustees his philosophy of education, and he asked for a number of policy decisions. Trustees' comments ranged from approval to downright disapproval. But with a majority of the board indicating approval, LeCount, in time, may be able to propose a broader educational program.

In speaking of educational philosophy behind a community college, he said: "I firmly believe in what seems to be current California educational philosophy. The University of California is moving more toward professional training; the state colleges toward sub-professional, and the colleges, such as the College of Marin, attempting to meet the needs of local people.

"I see adult education as an integral part of the community college, that is, in a broadened concept. The college is primarily for 18 to 20-year-olds but it should be broadened to include adults.

"I propose we could include meetings or conferences with community betterments as the objective. I would like to see meetings on the campus that would deal with the improvement of Marin County."

Trustee George G. Washburn hammered at the idea that the college should be primarily concerned with educating the young people. He said he thought adults should pay their own way. Washburn took several adult education classes at the College of Marin before he was elected a trustee. "I felt like I was stealing something," he said.

While he did not entirely dismiss adult education, Washburn scoffed at some ideas.

"Is it right to teach people how to make lampshades and drapes?" he asked.

Teacher Up For Approval

Certification of a new second grade teacher at the Yolansdale School will be among the items of business scheduled to come before the regular meeting of the San Anselmo School District trustees at the Isabel Cook school tonight at 8.

The teacher, whose approval has been recommended by the board, is Mrs. Ethel Bauer, former fifth grade teacher in Seattle.

Also on the agenda is a review of fire insurance proposals, organization of a tax increase committee and a review of the administrative handbook.

Motel Guest Loses Articles To Thief

The theft of a wrist watch, wallet and check book from a room in the Starlight Motel north of San Rafael was reported to the Marin County sheriff's office yesterday by Harold A. Arvidson, 62-year-old salesman.

Arvidson, employed by the Jewel Co., said the thief pushed open his unlocked door, reached in and stole the articles as he slept.

Executive Charged In Ross Accident

Officers said Pomeroy, 40, drove off after sideswiping a parked car at 12:37 a.m. at Magnolia avenue and Ward street in Larkspur.

Pomeroy, president of J. H. Pomeroy and Co. construction and engineering firm, is to appear before Municipal Judge Richard M. Sims at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Patrolman John Cottle reported he saw Pomeroy's car strike the other vehicle, then weave down the street.

When stopped, Pomeroy at first denied hitting the other car, but later said he might have, police reported. The right side of his car was damaged and paint scrapings matched paint on the parked car, they said.

Locked up in Marin County Jail after taking a blood alcohol test, the executive was released at 2:30 a.m. when a friend paid his $368 bail in cash.

Pomeroy, who is also a director of Pacific National Bank, lives in Ross on Newell road, a street named after a member of his family.

Laundry Sold At Mill Valley

The Mill Valley French Laundry at 138 E. Blithedale avenue has been sold by Mrs. Lois Lerst to Alvin and La Verne Baudour of Pacific Grove.

Mrs. Lerst and her late husband took over the laundry about five years ago. Mrs. Lerst said she plans to travel before returning to an apartment in Corte Madera.

Ringney Frets Over Giants' Slump

"We've just gotta get some hits," Bill Rigney said today. "I can't remember the last time we busted loose for a really big inning."

But the gray-haired San Francisco manager had no idea where the hits were going to come from after watching his Giants lose to the Cubs 7-3 yesterday, the second straight Giant loss to Chicago.

The San Francisco loss, coupled with Los Angeles' 8-2 win over St. Louis, left the Giants just 1½ games ahead of the Dodgers. The Giants are but two games in front of the resurgent Milwaukee Braves, who took a doubleheader from Pittsburgh.

Asked if the Giants were getting tired, Rigney replied:

Part of the Giants' difficulties could be traced to Orlando Cepeda, usually a life-saver at first base. The Cubs' first two runs scored in the second inning after Orlando was unable to find first base after taking a throw from Daryl Spencer that should have been the third out.

Then, in the fifth inning, Cepeda lost Thomson's foul pop in a mixup with a fan in the first base boxes. Bobby then doubled, to score Art Schult with the Cubs' seventh run.

Park police escorted the fan out of the ball park for interfering with the play, but Cepeda shrugged it off. "He was just trying to keep from getting hit," Orlando said.

The capacity crowd of 22,715 watched the Cubs move ahead for keeps in the third on Ernie Banks' 375-foot homer into the left field pavilion. It scored Schult, who had singled. The blast gave Banks 27 homers and 92 runs batted in for the year.

McCormick was sent to cover when the first three Cubs hit safely in the fifth. Tony Taylor opened with a single, scored on Al Dark's double into the left field corner and then Dark scored on Schult's single.

That brought Jack Sanford in from the bullpen and Thomson's second-chance double scored Schult.

The Giants scored their first run without a base hit. Jackie Brandt walked, stole second, moved to third on an infield out by Jimmy Davenport and crossed the plate on Mays' bouncer to Banks.

The Giants will play an exhibition game tonight at Portland, Ore., against the Beavers of the Pacific Coast League.

Either Johnny Antonelli (14-5) or Sam Jones (14-10) will pitch tomorrow night against Jim Owens (6-8) when the Philadelphia Phils come in to San Francisco to begin a a three-game series.

MARIN GRID STAR VISITS HOSPITAL

Rodriguez Noted For Winning The Big Ones

Sixto Rodriguez, who meets fourth-ranked Jesse Bowdry of St Louis in a 10-round light heavyweight match at the Civic Auditorium Thursday night, has shown so far, in his promising career, that he has the ingredients to win the "big" ones.

After piling up an impressive 17-0 mark, Rodriguez appeared on the Floyd Patterson-Roy Harris world's heavyweight championship card last August, in Los Angeles, against the hard-hitting Puggy Jones.

Jones caught Kid Sixto with a right hand and floored him in the fourth round, his first visit to the canvas, but the San Anselmo scrapper came back to flatten Puggy in the next heat.

With a style that resembles Harris, Rodriguez had acted as Patterson's sparring partner when the then heavyweight king was preparing for that defense of his crown. According to wire service stories at the time, Rodriguez "made the champion look sloppy . . . and landed several 'sucker' rights on Floyd's face."

Two bouts later, in Richmond, the Puerto Rican-born pugilist trimmed Billy Hester, to win the California State light heavyweight title. He lost the crown to Monroe Ratliff in the latter's home town, San Diego, in January this year.

It was after that setback that Rodriguez came back to score his two biggest wins, so far.

He came off the floor to whip veteran Junius Washington in a sizzling Oakland match in May, and last month he returned to San Diego to regain the 175-pound bauble with a lop-sided triumph over Ratliff.

Now, figures his manager, Karl Ashley, the 22-year-old Puerto Rican is ready to tackle some of the top names in the division.

His match with Bowdry, a recent winner over Tony Anthony, provides the acid test. The 20-year-old Midwesterner, loser of only three fights in his career, all to Sonny Ray, has recorded 20 kayo wins.

There will be no radio or television broadcast of the bout.

Stengel Changes Mound Staff For All-Star Squad

BOSTON (AP)—Pitchers Cal McLish, Billy O'Dell and Camilo Pascual have replaced three other hurlers on the American League squad for the second All-Star game, President Joe Cronin announced today.

The contest will be played at Los Angeles, Aug. 3.

Manager Casey Stengel, field boss of the defending world champion New York Yankees, has inserted Cleveland's McLish, Baltimore's O'Dell and Washington's Pascual in place of Jim Bunning of Detroit, Whitey Ford of New York and Billy Pierce of Chicago.

The latter were on the squad for the first All-Star game at Pittsburgh, July 7, won by the National 5-4.

Stengel also added three outfielders when the squad limit was raised from 25 to 28 players for the second game. The additional fly chasers include Bob Allison of Washington, Kansas City's Roger Maris and Gene Woodling of Baltimore.

The rest of the squad remains the same as it appeared in Pittsburgh.

Ex-Spitball Hurler Buck O'Brien Dies

BOSTON (AP) — A spitball pitcher who hurled for the Boston Red Sox world champions of 1912 is dead.

Thomas J. "Buck" O'Brien, 77, died Saturday. In four seasons of major league pitching, O'Brien won 27 and lost 26 games.

Thurman Fans 16, Tiburon Rolls, 19-0

Tiburon's Pelicans managed to combine their best pitching and hitting performances of the season yesterday in clobbering the Teamsters Union semi-professional team of San Francisco by a 19-0 score at Tiburon.

Veteran moundsman Fred Thurman handcuffed the Teamsters, giving up only three hits while mowing down 16 batsmen via the strikeout route. Thurman, who walked only one man, had a no-hitter for seven and one-third innings before the visitors nicked him for two singles in the eighth and one more in the ninth. The right-hander struck out the side in three innings.

His mates, meanwhile, were enjoying a slugfest at the plate with Bob Sapp and Ken Anderson each clouting four hits, the latter driving across five runs with three singles and a triple.

Young Eddie Vigno clouted a home run and two singles; Rich Curry had two singles and Steve Joses a two-run homer.

It was Tiburon's seventh victory against three losses.

Southern Cal Yawl Wins Islands Race

The Kialoa, with a corrected time of 23 hours and 32 minutes, was tops among 27 entries. Six failed to finish because of a lack of wind.

The Chubasco, also from the Newport Yacht Club, finished second with a corrected time of 24 hours nine minutes.

John P. Scripps' ketch Novia Del Mar placed third with a corrected time of 26 hours two minutes.

Indians Lead A.L., Thanks To 'Unknowns'

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Six months ago Jim Perry and Bobby Locke were as widely unknown as Jim Baxes. To suggest that these young men would be largely responsible for boosting Cleveland into the American League lead would have been courting a trip to the booby hatch.

Perry was a good prospect who just had finished a fine season in Class A at Reading, Pa. Locke was in the Army or just getting out. Baxes, packing a little age, was just another infielder in the Los Angeles organization.

Because Perry shut out Washington with two hits 9-0 and Baxes singled home the winning run in the 12th inning for a 4-3 victory in the second game yesterday, the Indians are back on top in the American League. Locke pitched 11 of the 12 innings before giving way to a pinch-hitter and Mudcat Grant, a 1958 rookie, picked up the decision.

Perry has all the earmarks of a real find for the Indians. Although his two-hitter was only his second start, it was his sixth victory. The fireballer from Jamesville, N. C. has been brilliant on relief. A pair of home runs by Woodie Held, who had four hits, eased his way.

Locke's effort was outstanding for a 25-year-old right-hander who was sent back to the minors from the Tucson, Ariz. spring training camp. He gave up only six hits in 11 innings.

Baltimore dropped Chicago a half game behind Cleveland by winning the second game 4-0 on a combination of Milt Pappas' five-hit pitching and the hitting of Gene Woodling. The veteran outfielder had a three-run homer and drove in another run with a single. Chicago won the opener on Early Wynn's two-hitter, 4-1, and Al Smith's three-run inside-the-park home run.

Detroit dropped the New York Yankees nine games off the pace with a 1-0 victory behind Frank Lary, who has a career record of 20-5 against the Yanks. Neil Chrisley, who had one hit in 21 previous pinch-hitting appearances, lined a 10th inning pinch single off Ryne Duren for the only run.

Kansas City ran its winning streak to seven, the longest for the club since it moved from Philadelphia, by thumping Boston 5-4. It was the Red Sox' ninth straight defeat.

The second game at Clevelyand was a toughie for Ramos. The Cuban gave up a three-run homer to Rocky Colavito (No. 30) in the first and then blanked the Indians for 10 innings. Baxes' winning single came with two out in the 12th.

Pappas' shutout that knocked Chicago out of first place was his third of the year and his 11th victory. Like Wynn in the opener, Pappas was in charge all the way.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RACE

Look Out! Braves Start Big Push

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

No Milwaukee burgher is hanging Fred Haney in effigy today. Nobody is whispering that Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette are over the hill. The Braves are up and at 'em again with a four-game winning streak.

Trailing the league-leading San Francisco Giants by only two games after a sweep of yesterday's double-header with Pittsburgh, Milwaukee seems to have snapped out of its midsummer slump.

Spahn's emphatic five-hitter in the 4-0 opener was the Braves' third straight shutout.

One unearned run in the fourth inning of the second game finally snapped a string of 30⅔ scoreless innings for Pittsburgh but it didn't help much. They still lost 2-1 to Bob Buhl, making his first start since June 19 after a siege of arm trouble.

Spahn's 13th victory, the 259th of his long career, was impressive. Buhl tired after seven innings and Don McMahon finished up with two hitless innings.

The Milwaukee attack still sputtered and stalled. They had only six hits in the opener while handing Bob Friend his 13th defeat. One was Johnny Logan's 12th homer. They had only five hits in the second but one was Joe Adcock's 11th homer.

Bob Anderson pulled San Francisco back a little closer to the pack as he pitched the Chicago Cubs into fourth place with a 7-3 victory. The Giants' defeat and Los Angeles' 8-2 decision over St. Louis sliced San Francisco's lead to 1½ games.

Cincinnati snapped Philadelphia's five-game winning streak in the first game 4-2, but Gene Conley got the Phils an even break with a 6-3 triumph in the second game when Richie Ashburn led a 14-hit Phil attack.

Don Drysdale drove in four runs with a three-run homer and a single and held St. Louis to seven hits while winning his 13th for the Dodgers. The smallest Sunday crowd of the year at the Coliseum, 14,453, saw the Dodgers break out of a hitting slump with 15 hits including homers by Drysdale and Charlie Neal.

49ERS LOSE 2 ROOKIE STARS FOR SEASON

MORAGA (UPI)—The San Francisco 49ers enter their third day of workouts today—with two rookie ends already lost for the season.

Offensive end Bill Curtis ended his year by rupturing his Achilles tendon while practicing sprints yesterday. Hillard Hill, former Southern California end, was pronounced out for the season Saturday because of a hernia.

Curtis, who played at Texas Christian, underwent surgery at St. Mary's Help Hospital in San Francisco two hours after his injury yesterday.

See Photo Finish In Richest Women's Tourney

Like basement bargain days, the money-minded gals enter the final lap of a stampede for the $6,500 first award in the $20,000 Mount Prospect Women's Open.

In front with 54-hole totals of 219—three strokes under par for the distance—are Betsy Rawls and Beverly Hanson. On their heels at 220 are Mickey Wright and Louise Suggs.

At 221 comes 45-year-old Ray Crocker, determined bidder whose home is in Montevideo, Uruguay.

Miss Rawls, with 6 tournament victories this season, and Miss Wright with 4—out of a total of 18—are running one-two in the money chase. Miss Rawls leads with $13,154 and Miss Wright has $12,482. Miss Suggs, after missing the Alliance Ohio Open last week, is third with $11,764.

Miss Hanson ,top money-winner last year, made her bid Sunday with a 71 while Miss Rawls, current LPGA champion, authored 73. Miss Wright, winner of the National Open the last two years, slipped to a 75 and Miss Suggs settled for a 74.

Conwell's Homer Wins For M.V. In Ninth Inning

Centerfielder Gary Conwell clouted a lead-off home run in the last of the ninth inning yesterday to give the Mill Valley Merchants a 7-6 edge over the Menlo Stars in their three-hour, 15-minute semi-pro battle at Mill Valley.

Woody Slatt, who pitched to only one batter in the ninth inning and struck him out on three pitches, received credit for the victory. He had relieved Bill Bowen who struck out 12 men in eight and two-thirds innings on the hill.

Mill Valley now has three wins against four losses.

S.F. MAN FIRST FATALITY OF DEER SEASON

LAKEPORT (UPI)—A San Francisco man became the first deer hunting fatality of the 1959 season yesterday when he was accidentally shot while hunting 25 miles southwest of Geyser Point.

Harold J. Wrigley, 58, a paint salesman for a San Francisco firm, was hunting in the area with 12 other Bay Area businessmen.

According to sheriff's deputies, the hunters were on various ridges around the canyon near Geyser Point. Wrigley was sitting in some brush about 250 yards away from his friend, Ray Connelly, owner of the Mission Gun Club in San Francisco.

Connelly yelled "there goes a buck" and fired twice, according to deputies. His second shot from a 30.06 rifle apparenlty struck Wrigley in the thigh.

He died minutes later from excessive bleeding and shock.

Giants Buy Relief Ace

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Veteran right-handed Eldred "Bud" Byerly joins the San Francisco Giants' pitching staff tomorrow night.

The 38-year-old Byerly, who has pitched for four other major league teams, had a 6-2 record at Minneapolis in the American Association.

The Giants gave up right-hander Billy Muffet and cash for the big curve-baller. Muffett, who pitched but 6⅔ innings for the Giants, had no decisions.

Byerly's previous big league experience was with the St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati Redlegs, Boston Red Sox and Washington Senators.

THE GIANTS packed little Seals Stadium with the biggest crowds in the ball park's history during the week that ended yesterday.

Five-Mile Skate Champ

John Drewry beat defending champion Richard Edwards of Wichita, Kan., by half a lap Sunday night at the Boston Arena. Drewry was timed in 15:20.

JACK HANLEY'S REPORT

Announcement Due On Giants' New Stadium

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

An announcement may be forthcoming today or tomorrow whether the Giants will move to Candlestick Park for the final three-week home stand in their pennant drive.

If successful in their race for the flag there is no question about the World Series being played in the new park.

In the final home stand beginning Sept. 2, the Giants will meet all seven other National League clubs in 18 games: Chicago (3), St. Louis (3), Pittsburgh (2), Philadelphia (3), Cincinnati (2), Milwaukee (2) and Los Angeles (3)—in that order.

That doesn't wind up the season, incidentally. The Giants then take to the road for the last time to play two games in Chicago and three in St. Louis where they started the season April 10 and conclude it September 27.

For the 18-game home stand in September, Seals Stadium's 23,000 capacity would be hard pressed—even the Monday and Tuesday sessions presumably would be SRO affairs in view of the way the customers are clamoring for tickets.

IT'S DOUBTFUL all of the games would be sellouts at Candlestick where the two-tier grandstand has 39,000 seats. Some of the games probably would be sellouts.

The additional seats available at the new park would pump at least an additional quarter of a million dollars into the Giant front office.

That added loot, however, is not the only factor involved. Concession stands and dressing rooms, which would be ready by World Series time, may or may not be completely installed by September 2.

THEN, TOO, there is the all-important playing field consideration. Notwithstanding some of the recent comments about Seals Stadium by Johnny Antonelli (concerning the winds) and Daryl Spencer (concerning the infield), the Giants do enjoy a psychological advantage in Seals Stadium.

Candlestick would be just as new to the Giants as it would be to the other teams. There would be no home grounds knowledge favoring the Giants at Candlestick.

The important access roads to Candlestick will be ready for traffic, although not completely surfaced. The parking lot is almost completed now.

IF THE Giants do go all the way, we hope Joe Gordon and his Indians make it in the American League. It would be just like old times meeting up again with Gordon, Rocky Colavito, Herb Score, Minnie Minoso and the rest of that gang.

The Giants and Indians have been spring training opponents since 1934. In the final game at Phoenix this year, Minoso was beaned by Stu Miller. Quite a verbal hassle developed.

Gordon, rushing out on the field, asked Bill Rigney: "What is this, a throwing contest?" And Rigney, suddenly realizing how long the Giants and Indians had been playing exhibition games without a serious incident, said:

"We've been playing each other too long for that. I hope you win the flag in that other league."

And Gordon laughed:

"Yeh, and I know why, you beat us so easy you'd like us in the World Series."

Baltimore Boasts Rookie Sensation

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP)—The Baltimore Colts have been training less than a week but coach Weeb Ewbank is already hesitantly comparing rookie Jerry Richardson with all-pro end Raymond Berry.

"He is already farther advanced at this period than Berry was when he first came up here," said Ewbank yesterday after watching Richardson drill with his National Football League champions.

"Shucks," drawled the 185-pound rookie, "I'm just plain scared. Where I come from, Wofford College, we only have an enrollment of about 500—we'd tell the quarterback, 'I'm going in that direction.' Here I got to learn 20 routes."

Observers agree that Richardson, who has shown jackrabbit speed and sure hands, is learning his "routes" or pass patterns well. Only three or four rookies are expected to crack the club roster this season, and Richardson is rated an excellent chance to be one of them.

HARRY'S WINS AGAIN

Harry's Mart concluded its Fairfax-Sleepy Hollow Junior League schedule yesterday with a 7-3 victory over the Alpine-Marconi team. It was Harry's 11th victory against only one loss.

Ringney Frets Over Giants' Slump

"We've just gotta get some hits," Bill Rigney said today. "I can't remember the last time we busted loose for a really big inning."

But the gray-haired San Francisco manager had no idea where the hits were going to come from after watching his Giants lose to the Cubs 7-3 yesterday, the second straight Giant loss to Chicago.

The San Francisco loss, coupled with Los Angeles' 8-2 win over St. Louis, left the Giants just 1½ games ahead of the Dodgers. The Giants are but two games in front of the resurgent Milwaukee Braves, who took a double-header from Pittsburgh.

Asked if the Giants were getting tired, Rigney replied:

Part of the Giants' difficulties could be traced to Orlando Cepeda, usually a life-saver at first base. The Cubs' first two runs scored in the second inning after Orlando was unable to find first base after taking a throw from Daryl Spencer that should have been the third out.

Then, in the fifth inning, Cepeda lost Thomson's foul pop in a mixup with a fan in the first base boxes. Bobby then doubled, to score Art Schult with the Cubs' seventh run.

Park police escorted the fan out of the ball park for interfering with the play, but Cepeda shrugged it off. "He was just trying to keep from getting hit," Orlando said.

The capacity crowd of 22,715 watched the Cubs move ahead for keeps in the third on Ernie Banks' 375-foot homer into the left field pavilion. It scored Schult, who had singled. The blast gave Banks 27 homers and 92 runs batted in for the year.

McCormick was sent to cover when the first three Cubs hit safely in the fifth. Tony Taylor opened with a single, scored on Al Dark's double into the left field corner and then Dark scored on Schult's single.

That brought Jack Sanford in from the bullpen and Thomson's second-chance double scored Schult.

The Giants scored their first run without a base hit. Jackie Brandt walked, stole second, moved to third on an infield out by Jimmy Davenport and crossed the plate on Mays' bouncer to Banks.

The Giants will play an exhibition game tonight at Portland, Ore., against the Beavers of the Pacific Coast League.

Either Johnny Antonelli (14-5) or Sam Jones (14-10) will pitch tomorrow night against Jim Owens (6-8) when the Philadelphia Phils come in to San Francisco to begin a a three-game series.

Rodriguez Noted For Winning The Big Ones

Sixto Rodriguez, who meets fourth-ranked Jesse Bowdry of St Louis in a 10-round light heavyweight match at the Civic Auditorium Thursday night, has shown so far, in his promising career, that he has the ingredients to win the "big" ones.

After piling up an impressive 17-0 mark, Rodriguez appeared on the Floyd Patterson-Roy Harris world's heavyweight championship card last August, in Los Angeles, against the hard-hitting Puggy Jones.

Jones caught Kid Sixto with a right hand and floored him in the fourth round, his first visit to the canvas, but the San Anselmo scrapper came back to flatten Puggy in the next heat.

With a style that resembles Harris, Rodriguez had acted as Patterson's sparring partner when the then heavyweight king was preparing for that defense of his crown. According to wire service stories at the time, Rodriguez "made the champion look sloppy . . . and landed several 'sucker' rights on Floyd's face."

Two bouts later, in Richmond, the Puerto Rican-born pugilist trimmed Billy Hester, to win the California State light heavyweight title. He lost the crown to Monroe Ratliff in the latter's home town, San Diego, in January this year.

It was after that setback that Rodriguez came back to score his two biggest wins, so far.

He came off the floor to whip veteran Junius Washington in a sizzling Oakland match in May, and last month he returned to San Diego to regain the 175-pound bauble with a lop-sided triumph over Ratliff.

Now, figures his manager, Karl Ashley, the 22-year-old Puerto Rican is ready to tackle some of the top names in the division.

His match with Bowdry, a recent winner over Tony Anthony, provides the acid test. The 20-year-old Midwesterner, loser of only three fights in his career, all to Sonny Ray, has recorded 20 kayo wins.

There will be no radio or television broadcast of the bout.

Stengel Changes Mound Staff For All-Star Squad

BOSTON (AP)—Pitchers Cal McLish, Billy O'Dell and Camilo Pascual have replaced three other hurlers on the American League squad for the second All-Star game, President Joe Cronin announced today.

The contest will be played at Los Angeles, Aug. 3.

Manager Casey Stengel, field boss of the defending world champion New York Yankees, has inserted Cleveland's McLish, Baltimore's O'Dell and Washington's Pascual in place of Jim Bunning of Detroit, Whitey Ford of New York and Billy Pierce of Chicago.

The latter were on the squad for the first All-Star game at Pittsburgh, July 7, won by the National 5-4.

Stengel also added three outfielders when the squad limit was raised from 25 to 28 players for the second game. The additional fly chasers include Bob Allison of Washington, Kansas City's Roger Maris and Gene Woodling of Baltimore.

The rest of the squad remains the same as it appeared in Pittsburgh.

Ex-Spitball Hurler Buck O'Brien Dies

BOSTON (AP) — A spitball pitcher who hurled for the Boston Red Sox world champions of 1912 is dead.

Thomas J. "Buck" O'Brien, 77, died Saturday. In four seasons of major league pitching, O'Brien won 27 and lost 26 games.

Thurman Fans 16, Tiburon Rolls, 19-0

Tiburon's Pelicans managed to combine their best pitching and hitting performances of the season yesterday in clobbering the Teamsters Union semi-professional team of San Francisco by a 19-0 score at Tiburon.

Veteran moundsman Fred Thurman handcuffed the Teamsters, giving up only three hits while mowing down 16 batsmen via the strikeout route. Thurman, who walked only one man, had a no-hitter for seven and one-third innings before the visitors nicked him for two singles in the eighth and one more in the ninth. The right-hander struck out the side in three innings.

His mates, meanwhile, were enjoying a slugfest at the plate with Bob Sapp and Ken Anderson each clouting four hits, the latter driving across five runs with three singles and a triple.

Young Eddie Vigno clouted a home run and two singles; Rich Curry had two singles and Steve Joses a two-run homer.

Southern Cal Yawl Wins Islands Race

The Kialoa, with a corrected time of 23 hours and 32 minutes, was tops among 27 entries. Six failed to finish because of a lack of wind.

The Chubasco, also from the Newport Yacht Club, finished second with a corrected time of 24 hours nine minutes.

Indians Lead A.L., Thanks To 'Unknowns'

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Six months ago Jim Perry and Bobby Locke were as widely unknown as Jim Baxes. To suggest that these young men would be largely responsible for boosting Cleveland into the American League lead would have been courting a trip to the booby hatch.

Perry was a good prospect who just had finished a fine season in Class A at Reading, Pa. Locke was in the Army or just getting out. Baxes, packing a little age, was just another infielder in the Los Angeles organization.

Because Perry shut out Washington with two hits 9-0 and Baxes singled home the winning run in the 12th inning for a 4-3 victory in the second game yesterday, the Indians are back on top in the American League. Locke pitched 11 of the 12 innings before giving way to a pinch-hitter and Mudcat Grant, a 1958 rookie, picked up the decision.

Perry has all the earmarks of a real find for the Indians. Although his two-hitter was only his second start, it was his sixth victory. The fireballer from Jamesville, N. C. has been brilliant on relief. A pair of home runs by Woodie Held, who had four hits, eased his way.

Locke's effort was outstanding for a 25-year-old right-hander who was sent back to the minors from the Tucson, Ariz. spring training camp. He gave up only six hits in 11 innings.

Baltimore dropped Chicago a half game behind Cleveland by winning the second game 4-0 on a combination of Milt Pappas' five-hit pitching and the hitting of Gene Woodling. The veteran outfielder had a three-run homer and drove in another run with a single. Chicago won the opener on Early Wynn's two-hitter, 4-1, and Al Smith's three-run inside-the-park home run.

Detroit dropped the New York Yankees nine games off the pace with a 1-0 victory behind Frank Lary, who has a career record of 20-5 against the Yanks. Neil Chrisley, who had one hit in 21 previous pinch-hitting appearances, lined a 10th inning pinch single off Ryne Duren for the only run.

Kansas City ran its winning streak to seven, the longest for the club since it moved from Philadelphia, by thumping Boston 5-4. It was the Red Sox' ninth straight defeat.

The second game at Clevelyand was a toughie for Ramos. The Cuban gave up a three-run homer to Rocky Colavito (No. 30) in the first and then blanked the Indians for 10 innings. Baxes' winning single came with two out in the 12th.

Pappas' shutout that knocked Chicago out of first place was his third of the year and his 11th victory. Like Wynn in the opener, Pappas was in charge all the way.

49ERS LOSE 2 ROOKIE STARS FOR SEASON

MORAGA (UPI)—The San Francisco 49ers enter their third day of workouts today—with two rookie ends already lost for the season.

Offensive end Bill Curtis ended his year by rupturing his Achilles tendon while practicing sprints yesterday. Hillard Hill, former Southern California end, was pronounced out for the season Saturday because of a hernia.

Curtis, who played at Texas Christian, underwent surgery at St. Mary's Help Hospital in San Francisco two hours after his injury yesterday.

See Photo Finish In Richest Women's Tourney

Like basement bargain days, the money-minded gals enter the final lap of a stampede for the $6,500 first award in the $20,000 Mount Prospect Women's Open.

In front with 54-hole totals of 219—three strokes under par for the distance—are Betsy Rawls and Beverly Hanson. On their heels at 220 are Mickey Wright and Louise Suggs.

Miss Rawls, with 6 tournament victories this season, and Miss Wright with 4—out of a total of 18—are running one-two in the money chase. Miss Rawls leads with $13,154 and Miss Wright has $12,482. Miss Suggs, after missing the Alliance Ohio Open last week, is third with $11,764.

Miss Hanson ,top money-winner last year, made her bid Sunday with a 71 while Miss Rawls, current LPGA champion, authored 73. Miss Wright, winner of the National Open the last two years, slipped to a 75 and Miss Suggs settled for a 74.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RACE

Look Out! Braves Start Big Push

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

No Milwaukee burgher is hanging Fred Haney in effigy today. Nobody is whispering that Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette are over the hill. The Braves are up and at 'em again with a four-game winning streak.

Trailing the league-leading San Francisco Giants by only two games after a sweep of yesterday's double-header with Pittsburgh, Milwaukee seems to have snapped out of its midsummer slump.

Spahn's emphatic five-hitter in the 4-0 opener was the Braves' third straight shutout.

One unearned run in the fourth inning of the second game finally snapped a string of 30⅔ scoreless innings for Pittsburgh but it didn't help much. They still lost 2-1 to Bob Buhl, making his first start since June 19 after a siege of arm trouble.

Spahn's 13th victory, the 259th of his long career, was impressive. Buhl tired after seven innings and Don McMahon finished up with two hitless innings.

The Milwaukee attack still sputtered and stalled. They had only six hits in the opener while handing Bob Friend his 13th defeat. One was Johnny Logan's 12th homer. They had only five hits in the second but one was Joe Adcock's 11th homer.

Bob Anderson pulled San Francisco back a little closer to the pack as he pitched the Chicago Cubs into fourth place with a 7-3 victory. The Giants' defeat and Los Angeles' 8-2 decision over St. Louis sliced San Francisco's lead to 1½ games.

Cincinnati snapped Philadelphia's five-game winning streak in the first game 4-2, but Gene Conley got the Phils an even break with a 6-3 triumph in the second game when Richie Ashburn led a 14-hit Phil attack.

Don Drysdale drove in four runs with a three-run homer and a single and held St. Louis to seven hits while winning his 13th for the Dodgers. The smallest Sunday crowd of the year at the Coliseum, 14,453, saw the Dodgers break out of a hitting slump with 15 hits including homers by Drysdale and Charlie Neal.

Conwell's Homer Wins For M.V. In Ninth Inning

Centerfielder Gary Conwell clouted a lead-off home run in the last of the ninth inning yesterday to give the Mill Valley Merchants a 7-6 edge over the Menlo Stars in their three-hour, 15-minute semi-pro battle at Mill Valley.

Woody Slatt, who pitched to only one batter in the ninth inning and struck him out on three pitches, received credit for the victory. He had relieved Bill Bowen who struck out 12 men in eight and two-thirds innings on the hill.

Mill Valley now has three wins against four losses.

S.F. MAN FIRST FATALITY OF DEER SEASON

LAKEPORT (UPI)—A San Francisco man became the first deer hunting fatality of the 1959 season yesterday when he was accidentally shot while hunting 25 miles southwest of Geyser Point.

Harold J. Wrigley, 58, a paint salesman for a San Francisco firm, was hunting in the area with 12 other Bay Area businessmen.

According to sheriff's deputies, the hunters were on various ridges around the canyon near Geyser Point. Wrigley was sitting in some brush about 250 yards away from his friend, Ray Connelly, owner of the Mission Gun Club in San Francisco.

Connelly yelled "there goes a buck" and fired twice, according to deputies. His second shot from a 30.06 rifle apparenlty struck Wrigley in the thigh.

He died minutes later from excessive bleeding and shock.

Giants Buy Relief Ace

The 38-year-old Byerly, who has pitched for four other major league teams, had a 6-2 record at Minneapolis in the American Association.

The Giants gave up right-hander Billy Muffet and cash for the big curve-baller. Muffett, who pitched but 6⅔ innings for the Giants, had no decisions.

Byerly's previous big league experience was with the St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati Redlegs, Boston Red Sox and Washington Senators.

THE GIANTS packed little Seals Stadium with the biggest crowds in the ball park's history during the week that ended yesterday.

Five-Mile Skate Champ

FORD CREW BEATEN

Rumsey Hero As SFYC Captures Perpetual Trophy

By ALFRED MATSON

To the victor goes the spoils and Jake Wosser, convincingly proved his right to the spoils, the San Francisco Perpetual Trophy, of the San Francisco Yach Club, as he sailed a flawless race against the defending champion Johnny Ford of the Sausalito Y. C. Saturday.

It was a big win for the S. F. club, the first since 1948 and after five fruitless challenges in the interim; just cause for the loyal members to acclaim Skipper Wosser and his crew in a heady round of toasts.

However, it might have been a different story but for the quick thinking of one Jake's crew on the Rutsan, John Rumsey. A couple of minutes before the start Ford brought the Norena in close to the old pier fronting the St. Francis Y.C. and Wosser tailed astern by but a few feet. When Ford came about and his pursuer attempted the same strategy, the keel hit bottom and the Rutsan came to a shuddering halt. Before the shoreside spectators were aware of the situation, young Rumsey was over the side and, with his feet firmly planted in the sand, gave a hearty push. The yacht slid free and he was back on board, a very wet hero.

Wosser laid the line in the weather position and on the first converging tack he forced Ford, coming off the beach on the port tack, to fall off and take his stern. And that was the boat race. Jack increased his lead to 40 seconds at the Crissy buoy and on the run down to buoy number 7 picked up a few more precious seconds. Yet on the reach to buoy 14, Ford, by sailing a higher course and breaking out his spinnaker for the last third of the leg, narrowed the time distance to 17 seconds. But on the long beat back, Jake had the Rutsan moving the better against the rough water and 20-mile breeze that beset them.

COMFORTABLE LEAD

He laid the San Francisco waterfront hard by the Aquaite Park and short tacked inshore out again to the Crissy buoy to round that marker for the final run to the finish line a comfortable 2 minutes and 40 seconds ahead of the Norena. While Ford and his crew with superior spinnaker setting and jibing were able to gain in the stretch run, the end result was inevitable with the Rutsan winning by 2 minutes and 10 seconds.

In his comments after the race, Jake said that once clear of Alcatraz and the Norena well astern but on the same course, he felt that victory was well within his grasp. The "experts" aboard the press boat Allyne, generously furnished by the Pacific Marina, Alameda's fabulous 700 berth harbor, opined that Ford might have gambled on tacking to windward of Alcatraz, but it is dubious that such strategy would have altered the outcome.

Now that the question of the crown bearer for 1959 has been settled, many are the conjectures of what may develop for 1960. Mayhap a challenger from southern California?

THE FINAL and complete picture of the Honolulu Race reveals some pleasing facts for Bay Area yatchsmen. A parade up Market street should be the order of the day on the return of the crew of the Farallon Clipper Debit, first in Division D and third overall. A great victory for its owner and builder, Ted Stephens, and crew which included such stalwarts as Aldo Alessio of Belvedere and Bob Potter of Mill Valley.

Second in D Division and fourth overall was another localite, Dr. Glen Harman's Echo, the other Farallon in the race. Lucid evidence of the class's seaworthy abilities and racing qualities, as well.

The factor behind the relatively poor showing of the Jack Hedden's Good News and Tom Short's Tasco II was a decision —they went south while most of the fleet took a more northerly course where the wind was more favorable.

Upsets Mark Junior Tennis Tourney; Laurie Top Winner

Thrills galore and a rash of upsets Saturday marked the climax to the fourth annual Marin County Junior Tennis Championships in San Rafael with Brian Laurie stealing most of the limelight by bagging two championship trophies and one runner-up award.

The Tamalpais High School junior won the boys under 15 singles, 6-4, 7-5 over Steve Clarke and the under 15 doubles with Harvey Klyce when they downed Ian Dibblee and Jimmy Gatterdam, 6-2, 6-1. Laurie and his under 18 doubles partner., Bob Hope, were victims of unranked Tom Connell and Dennis Langhoff, 6-3, 6-4 in one of four upsets.

In the other surprises, Glen Pritzker defeated Dibblee, 2-6, 6-4, 6-1 in the age 13 singles; Lynn Cary stunned top-seeded Marilyn Nault, 6-3, 7-5 in girls 18 singles; and unranked Dennis Langhoff downed third-seeded Hob Hope, 6-3, 6-2 in the boys 18 finals.

Barbara Strong averted another major reversal when she rallied to down 10-year-old Lynn Gosser in a two and one-half hour girls 13 and under marathon. The score was 3-6, 7-5, 8-6.

The tournament's only sad note saw Harvey Klyce, favored in other 18 and 15 singles, pull up lame with a back injury and had to default in the semi-finals. He managed to finish in the doubles, however, to gain a championship trophy with Laurie.

The tournament, co-sponsored by the Independent-Journal and the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Department, attracted 258 entries, a tournament record. Matches were played at Albert Park and the successful event was climaxed Saturday evening with presentation of trophies by Director Joe Rodota to the young stars.

The All-Stars will meet Baltimore's National Football League champions in Soldier Field, Aug. 14.

"They have good spirit and are willing to work," Graham said. "These are very important ingredients. You can always go on from there. The overall speed is good, too."

North Carolina To Pick Grid Coach

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—A successor to the late Jim Tatum as football coach of the University of North Carolina was expected to be announced today following a meeting of the Athletic Council.

Two of Tatum's assistants, Jim Hickey and Emmett Cheek, were prominently mentioned for the post, vacated by the death last Thursday of the 46-year-old Tatum, who succumbed to a virus infection.

San Anselmo Scores 8th Straight Win

San Anselmo's Ongaro Plumbers, the hottest semi-pro team in Marin County this year, racked up its eight straight victory yesterday at Memorial Park in the Hub City by beating the Johnson's Tamales nine, 7-4.

The visitors got to Ace Bobby DeRosa for three hits in the very first frame for one run, but the Plumbers came right back in their half and tied up the count on Tim Reardon's home run. The Plumbers put the game on ice in the third when they tallied four runs on four hits, triples by Milt Hain and Lou Campredon sandwiched in between singles by John Boccabella and Pete Arrigoni.

The visitors never quit, scoring once in the sixth and two more in the seventh to come within one run of tying up the ball game. However, the Plumbers scored two insurance runs in their half of the seventh.

The victory was DeRosa's eighth of the season. Next Friday the Plumbers travel to Healdsburg for a return engagement with the Prune Packers. This game is at 8 p.m. They will return for a home game at Memorial Park next Sunday, game time, 2 p.m.

Marin Vets Win Fourth Straight

Infielder Sandy Slack clouted a triple and two singles, driving in two runs, to pace the Marin "Veterans" to a 6-4 victory over Pepsi-Cola yesterday in the Class AA San Francisco Recreation League.

It was the Marin team's fourth league win without defeat.

Fire In Home Of Promoter; Arson Feared

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A flash fire broke out late last night in the home of boxing promoter Jackie Leonard, who on June 3 said he was beaten after receiving threats from underworld figures trying to muscle into boxing.

Leonard said he and his wife, Jeanne, and two women visitors were watching television when the fire started in a front bedroom.

He said the wire screen covering of the bedroom window had been torn open.

"I called the fire department and arson squad investigators," Leonard said. "I threw several pans of water on the fire and was able to get it out before they arrived."

Leonard said this was the second incident at his home in the last two weeks. On July 12, he said, a gallon can half full of gasoline was found on the front porch of his home. He said gasoline had been splashed on the window sill and side of the house.

Leonard was found unconscious in his garage last June 3. He said two men had attacked him. After an investigation, police expressed the opinion Leonard had blacked out and injured himself in a fall.

Earlier, Leonard had told the California Athletic Commission that underworld figures Frankie Carbo and Frank Blinky Palermo had threatened him in an attempt to get a part of the contract of world welterweight champion Don Jordan.

2 Lightweight Bouts On Video This Week

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Lenny Matthews and Candy McFarland, both from Philadelphia, are fighting Friday night in Madison Square Garden.

There is considerable talk that Matthews may wind up with a lightweight title shot at Joe Brown in late summer or early fall if he gets past McFarland, a Sugar Ray Robinson protege.

Matthews has lost only two pro fights but McFarland beat him four out of five in the amateurs. McFarland has a 15-2-1 record.

The bout will be carried on network (NBC) radio and television.

THE WEDNESDAY show also had to dig around a bit before coming up with a quick sub after Archie Moore's light heavy defense bout against Yvon Durelle was postponed again to Aug. 12.

Instead of the title fight from Montreal, the Wednesday series (ABC-TV) will bring a lightweight scrap from Cleveland between Flash Elorde of the Philippines and Larry Boysaw of Cleveland.

Elorde, the champ of the Orient, is a veteran of 63 pro starts. Boysaw, 26, has won 20 of 21 with one draw.

MacKay Captures Penn Title As Olmedo Upset

HAVERFORD, Pa. (AP)—Barry MacKay says he isn't having nightmares, but he won't sleep the sleep of the contented until he's attoned for his challenge round Davis Cup defeat.

MacKay sat on a porch overlooking the Merion Cricket Club tennis courts yesterday and talked tennis. He was pleased with his victory over Ian Vermaak for his second straight Pennsylvania State Lawn Tennis title.

"It's always nice to win," he said of his 9-7, 10-8, 6-0 decision over Vermaak, the South African who only 24 hours earlier startled the tennis world with a straight set triumph over Alex Olmedo, the U. S. Davis Cup ace.

But MacKay willingly, almost eagerly, turned the subject to the coveted international cup.

"My Davis Cup defeats have been and are on my mind. I want very much to come back and play well in the challenge round. Yes, you might say I want to atone for my two defeats last year in Australia," he said.

MacKay said he was confident America would retain the Davis Cup it won finally from Australia last winter.

"I think Alex Olmeda and I could play good doubles together if we work at it. I realize that except for the national indoors, which we won, we haven't played worth a damn so far, but we have not really had a chance."

Scotch Foursome Golf At Indian Valley Club

Mrs. Helen Hardcastle teamed with Hank Hartman yesterday to win the Indian Valley Golf Club's Scotch Foursome Tournament at the Novato course. They netted 62½.

Mrs. Warren Smith and Fred Volz were a second with 66½ while the teams of Mrs. Betty Slater-Charles Coleman and Mrs. Bud Sparrow-Neil Bowman tied for third at 68.

FORD CREW BEATEN

Rumsey Hero As SFYC Captures Perpetual Trophy

By ALFRED MATSON

To the victor goes the spoils and Jake Wosser, convincingly proved his right to the spoils, the San Francisco Perpetual Trophy, of the San Francisco Yach Club, as he sailed a flawless race against the defending champion Johnny Ford of the Sausalito Y. C. Saturday.

It was a big win for the S. F. club, the first since 1948 and after five fruitless challenges in the interim; just cause for the loyal members to acclaim Skipper Wosser and his crew in a heady round of toasts.

However, it might have been a different story but for the quick thinking of one Jake's crew on the Rutsan, John Rumsey. A couple of minutes before the start Ford brought the Norena in close to the old pier fronting the St. Francis Y.C. and Wosser tailed astern by but a few feet. When Ford came about and his pursuer attempted the same strategy, the keel hit bottom and the Rutsan came to a shuddering halt. Before the shoreside spectators were aware of the situation, young Rumsey was over the side and, with his feet firmly planted in the sand, gave a hearty push. The yacht slid free and he was back on board, a very wet hero.

Wosser laid the line in the weather position and on the first converging tack he forced Ford, coming off the beach on the port tack, to fall off and take his stern. And that was the boat race. Jack increased his lead to 40 seconds at the Crissy buoy and on the run down to buoy number 7 picked up a few more precious seconds. Yet on the reach to buoy 14, Ford, by sailing a higher course and breaking out his spinnaker for the last third of the leg, narrowed the time distance to 17 seconds. But on the long beat back, Jake had the Rutsan moving the better against the rough water and 20-mile breeze that beset them.

COMFORTABLE LEAD

He laid the San Francisco waterfront hard by the Aquaitc Park and short tacked inshore out again to the Crissy buoy to round that marker for the final run to the finish line a comfortable 2 minutes and 40 seconds ahead of the Norena. While Ford and his crew with superior spinnaker setting and jibing were able to gain in the stretch run, the end result was inevitable with the Rutsan winning by 2 minutes and 10 seconds.

In his comments after the race, Jake said that once clear of Alcatraz and the Norena well astern but on the same course, he felt that victory was well within his grasp. The "experts" aboard the press boat Allyne, generously furnished by the Pacific Marina, Alameda's fabulous 700 berth harbor, opined that Ford might have gambled on tacking to windward of Alcatraz, but it is dubious that such strategy would have altered the outcome.

Now that the question of the crown bearer for 1959 has been settled, many are the conjectures of what may develop for 1960. Mayhap a challenger from southern California?

THE .FINAL and complete picture of the Honolulu Race reveals some pleasing facts for Bay Area yatchsmen. A parade up Market street should be the order of the day on the return of the crew of the Farallon Clipper Debit, first in Division D and third overall. A great victory for its owner and builder, Ted Stephens, and crew which included such stalwarts as Aldo Alessio of Belvedere and Bob Potter of Mill Valley.

Second in D Division and fourth overall was another localite, Dr. Glen Harman's Echo, the other Farallon in the race. Lucid evidence of the class's seaworthy abilities and racing qualities, as well.

The factor behind the relatively poor showing of the Jack Hedden's Good News and Tom Short's Tasco II was a decision —they went south while most of the fleet took a more northerly course where the wind was more favorable.

Upsets Mark Junior Tennis Tourney; Laurie Top Winner

Thrills galore and a rash of upsets Saturday marked the climax to the fourth annual Marin County Junior Tennis Championships in San Rafael with Brian Laurie stealing most of the limelight by bagging two championship trophies and one runner-up award.

The Tamalpais High School junior won the boys under 15 singles, 6-4, 7-5 over Steve Clarke and the under 15 doubles with Harvey Klyce when they downed Ian Dibblee and Jimmy Gatterdam, 6-2, 6-1. Laurie and his under 18 doubles partner., Bob Hope, were victims of unranked Tom Connell and Dennis Langhoff, 6-3, 6-4 in one of four upsets.

In the other surprises, Glen Pritzker defeated Dibblee, 2-6, 6-4, 6-1 in the age 13 singles; Lynn Cary stunned top-seeded Marilyn Nault, 6-3, 7-5 in girls 18 singles; and unranked Dennis Langhoff downed third-seeded Hob Hope, 6-3, 6-2 in the boys 18 finals.

Barbara Strong averted another major reversal when she rallied to down 10-year-old Lynn Gosser in a two and one-half hour girls 13 and under marathon. The score was 3-6, 7-5, 8-6.

The tournament's only sad note saw Harvey Klyce, favored in other 18 and 15 singles, pull up lame with a back injury and had to default in the semi-finals. He managed to finish in the doubles, however, to gain a championship trophy with Laurie.

The tournament, co-sponsored by the Independent-Journal and the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Department, attracted 258 entries, a tournament record. Matches were played at Albert Park and the successful event was climaxed Saturday evening with presentation of trophies by Director Joe Rodota to the young stars.

North Carolina To Pick Grid Coach

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—A successor to the late Jim Tatum as football coach of the University of North Carolina was expected to be announced today following a meeting of the Athletic Council.

Two of Tatum's assistants, Jim Hickey and Emmett Cheek, were prominently mentioned for the post, vacated by the death last Thursday of the 46-year-old Tatum, who succumbed to a virus infection.

San Anselmo Scores 8th Straight Win

San Anselmo's Ongaro Plumbers, the hottest semi-pro team in Marin County this year, racked up its eight straight victory yesterday at Memorial Park in the Hub City by beating the Johnson's Tamales nine, 7-4.

The visitors got to Ace Bobby DeRosa for three hits in the very first frame for one run, but the Plumbers came right back in their half and tied up the count on Tim Reardon's home run. The Plumbers put the game on ice in the third when they tallied four runs on four hits, triples by Milt Hain and Lou Campredon sandwiched in between singles by John Boccabella and Pete Arrigoni.

The visitors never quit, scoring once in the sixth and two more in the seventh to come within one run of tying up the ball game. However, the Plumbers scored two insurance runs in their half of the seventh.

The victory was DeRosa's eighth of the season. Next Friday the Plumbers travel to Healdsburg for a return engagement with the Prune Packers. This game is at 8 p.m. They will return for a home game at Memorial Park next Sunday, game time, 2 p.m.

Marin Vets Win Fourth Straight

Infielder Sandy Slack clouted a triple and two singles, driving in two runs, to pace the Marin "Veterans" to a 6-4 victory over Pepsi-Cola yesterday in the Class AA San Francisco Recreation League.

It was the Marin team's fourth league win without defeat.

Fire In Home Of Promoter; Arson Feared

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A flash fire broke out late last night in the home of boxing promoter Jackie Leonard, who on June 3 said he was beaten after receiving threats from underworld figures trying to muscle into boxing.

Leonard said he and his wife, Jeanne, and two women visitors were watching television when the fire started in a front bedroom.

He said the wire screen covering of the bedroom window had been torn open.

"I called the fire department and arson squad investigators," Leonard said. "I threw several pans of water on the fire and was able to get it out before they arrived."

Leonard said this was the second incident at his home in the last two weeks. On July 12, he said, a gallon can half full of gasoline was found on the front porch of his home. He said gasoline had been splashed on the window sill and side of the house.

Leonard was found unconscious in his garage last June 3. He said two men had attacked him. After an investigation, police expressed the opinion Leonard had blacked out and injured himself in a fall.

Earlier, Leonard had told the California Athletic Commission that underworld figures Frankie Carbo and Frank Blinky Palermo had threatened him in an attempt to get a part of the contract of world welterweight champion Don Jordan.

2 Lightweight Bouts On Video This Week

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Lenny Matthews and Candy McFarland, both from Philadelphia, are fighting Friday night in Madison Square Garden.

There is considerable talk that Matthews may wind up with a lightweight title shot at Joe Brown in late summer or early fall if he gets past McFarland, a Sugar Ray Robinson protege.

Matthews has lost only two pro fights but McFarland beat him four out of five in the amateurs. McFarland has a 15-2-1 record.

The bout will be carried on network (NBC) radio and television.

THE WEDNESDAY show also had to dig around a bit before coming up with a quick sub after Archie Moore's light heavy defense bout against Yvon Durelle was postponed again to Aug. 12.

Instead of the title fight from Montreal, the Wednesday series (ABC-TV) will bring a lightweight scrap from Cleveland between Flash Elorde of the Philippines and Larry Boysaw of Cleveland.

Elorde, the champ of the Orient, is a veteran of 63 pro starts. Boysaw, 26, has won 20 of 21 with one draw.

MacKay Captures Penn Title As Olmedo Upset

HAVERFORD, Pa. (AP)—Barry MacKay says he isn't having nightmares, but he won't sleep the sleep of the contented until he's attoned for his challenge round Davis Cup defeat.

MacKay sat on a porch overlooking the Merion Cricket Club tennis courts yesterday and talked tennis. He was pleased with his victory over Ian Vermaak for his second straight Pennsylvania State Lawn Tennis title.

"It's always nice to win," he said of his 9-7, 10-8, 6-0 decision over Vermaak, the South African who only 24 hours earlier startled the tennis world with a straight set triumph over Alex Olmedo, the U. S. Davis Cup ace.

But MacKay willingly, almost eagerly, turned the subject to the coveted international cup.

"My Davis Cup defeats have been and are on my mind. I want very much to come back and play well in the challenge round. Yes, you might say I want to atone for my two defeats last year in Australia," he said.

MacKay said he was confident America would retain the Davis Cup it won finally from Australia last winter.

"I think Alex Olmeda and I could play good doubles together if we work at it. I realize that except for the national indoors, which we won, we haven't played worth a damn so far, but we have not really had a chance."

Peasant 'Mandate' Returns Castro To Power In Cuba

HAVANA (UPI)—Premier Fidel Castro was officially back in power today with a "mandate" from a half-million shouting, shooting peasants ready to turn their razor-sharp machetes against his foes.

Castro told a widly cheering mass meeting here last night that he will "bow to the people's will" and resume the post he vacated 10 days ago to launch the squeeze play that overthrew President Manuel Urrutia.

The peasants jamming Havana's new civic center, yelled themselves hoarse, firing revolvers in the air and flashing the machetes which were acclaimed by Castro as the new symbol of his revolution.

Two baseball players were injured in a similar burst of exuberance just after midnight yesterday, when gun-firing soldiers swarmed onto the field during a night game.

The Rochester Red Wings, whose infielder Frank Verdi's head was grazed by a stray bullet, hastily canceled a doubleheader scheduled yesterday.

The Cubans were scornful. They pointed out that their shortstop, Leonardo Cardenas, was hit in the arm by a bullet and didn't complain.

Castro's brother, Raul, pony-tailed commander of Cuba's armed forces, set the stage for his appearance with a speech saying that "the only thing we ask is that Fidel return."

Osvaldo Dorticos Torrado, who was installed as president in place of Urrutia, then stepped forward to announce that Castro had decided to resume his duties as premier "as a result of your mandate."

Castro confirmed his decision in a two and one-half-hour speech, declaring also that anyone who opposed his land reform plans would face a "united front" of machete-wielding peasants like those who heard him speak.

Both Castros declared repeatedly that the machetes in the civic center were there to defend the Cuban revolution against unidentified enemies—who, Raul said, had plotted to assassinate Fidel and his principal aides.

Fidel said that Cuba—which has had no congress since Castro overthrew President Fulgencio Batista on Jan. 1—is "uninterested" by the activities of any other country's senate.

McELROY: RUSS HAVE FEWER THAN 10 ICBMs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has fewer than 10 intercontinental range missiles capable of hitting the United States, Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy says.

McElroy's statement yesterday contrasted with his news conference views six months ago when he said "We do not believe that Russia has an ICBM capable of operation against this country at this time."

McElroy made it clear yesterday that U.S. defense leaders believe over-all American weapons "could more than match whatever the Russians will have in intercontinental ballistic missile capability."

The tournament will be held in Sonoma Plaza. Play will begin at 11 a.m.

Damage Hits Millions In HurricaneWake

Industrial areas, which expected to catch some of the heaviest damage, escaped destruction.

The hardest blows from the storm which burst with only a few hours warning from the ocean were delivered instead to fleets of boats along the Gulf.

Small boats were swamped, shrimpers were slammed against pilings and other boats and pleasure craft were washed ashore or banged against docks and boathouses by high and vicious tides.

Freeport apparently suffered the heaviest damage. Mayor Jim Russell said it will total 1¼ to 1½ million dollars.

First Joint Steel Peace Talks Open

NEW YORK (AP)—The first joint peace talks between industry and union since the start of the nationwide steel strike opened here today under the auspices of federal mediators.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, reiterated this warning that no early or easy settlement of the 13-day-old strike appears likely.

Finnegan, who arranged the joint talks last week, said on his arrival from Washington last night: "They can't settle this strike by not talking."

Heading the negotiating teams for today's talks are David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers of America, and R. Conrad Cooper, executive vice president of the United States Steel Corp.

The strike of 500,000 members of the United Steelworkers has shut down plants that produced almost 90 per cent of the nation's steel. The stoppage has idled an estimated 78,000 employees in other industries, with railroads the hardest hit.

The union's demands include a 15-cent-an-hour package increase in each year of a new contract, plus fringe benefits. The industry, rejecting the demands, contends that an increase in labor costs would force a rise in steel prices and thus help spur inflation.

The union contends that industry profits and increased productivity make a wage rise possible without a price increase. Pre-strike wages averaged $3.10 an hour.

Hoffa Takes Libel Dare, Plans To Sue

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Teamsters Union president James R. Hoffa said today he would accept a challenge to sue Senate Rackets Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy for libel.

Kennedy hurled a half dozen charges at Hoffa on a nationwide television program and then challenged the peppery union leader to sue for libel.

Hoffa said he had "every intention" of bringing libel action against Kennedy for these charges and for accusations he made last Wednesday on another television show. He said he also would sue NBC, the network that carried both programs.

Hawaii Picks State Slate Tomorrow

HONOLULU (UPI)—Voters tomorrow elect the men to represent Hawaii in her new role as the 50th state.

They will elect two senators, one member of the House of Representatives, a governor and 62 members of the state Legislature.

Of the six candidates running for the two Senate and one House seats, three are Orientals and two are heavily favored in their contests.

GOVERNOR RACE

Appointed Republican Territorial Gov. William F. Quinn is opposed by Democratic Delegate to Congress John A. Burns. Both sides are predicting victory—and both admit it will be close.

In the race for senate seat "A," Democrat Frank Fasi is opposing millionaire Chinese-American Hiram Fong in what is rated the closest contest in the election. Fasi is a Connecticut-born businessman.

DEMOS CONFIDENT

The Democrats are so confident that Long will win, they allowed the former school teacher to attend a convention in New York in the middle of the campaign.

Figured to win a seat in the House of Representatives is one-armed war hero Daniel K. Inouye, 33-year-old lawyer-legislator of Japanese ancestry. Democrat Inouye has been endorsed by the majority of the non-partisan groups who favor him over Republican Charles H. Silva.

Eleven of the candidates for the state Legislature are of Chinese ancestry, 53 are Americans of Japanese ancestry, three are Koreans and two are Filipinos.

Signing Of Bill Causes Concern

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Local civic leaders have expressed "amazement and concern" over the signing by Gov. Edmund G. Brown of a bill to permit liquor to be sold near colleges and universities.

"I am amazed, disappointed and very much surprised—as everybody else in this territory will be that the governor would sign such a bill," said Brentwood real estate broker Charleton Mattes.

Mattes, secretary-treasurer of the Brentwood Community Federation, helped lead the battle against passage of the liquor measure, Senate Bill 1093.

GOVERNOR RACE

Appointed Republican Territorial Gov. William F. Quinn is opposed by Democratic Delegate to Congress John A. Burns. Both sides are predicting victory—and both admit it will be close.

In the race for senate seat "A," Democrat Frank Fasi is opposing millionaire Chinese-American Hiram Fong in what is rated the closest contest in the election. Fasi is a Connecticut-born businessman.

DEMOS CONFIDENT

The Democrats are so confident that Long will win, they allowed the former school teacher to attend a convention in New York in the middle of the campaign.

Figured to win a seat in the House of Representatives is one-armed war hero Daniel K. Inouye, 33-year-old lawyer-legislator of Japanese ancestry. Democrat Inouye has been endorsed by the majority of the non-partisan groups who favor him over Republican Charles H. Silva.

Orientals representing all four major Asian countries—Japan, China, Korea and the Philippines—are candidates for the state offices.

Eleven of the candidates for the state Legislature are of Chinese ancestry, 53 are Americans of Japanese ancestry, three are Koreans and two are Filipinos.

Signing Of Bill Causes Concern

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Local civic leaders have expressed "amazement and concern" over the signing by Gov. Edmund G. Brown of a bill to permit liquor to be sold near colleges and universities.

"I am amazed, disappointed and very much surprised—as everybody else in this territory will be that the governor would sign such a bill," said Brentwood real estate broker Charleton Mattes.

PALATIAL ROSS HOME GOES UP IN FLAMES; $80,000 LOSS

The Peter McAndrew home on Upper road in Ross is seen burning Saturday night. Neighbors reported a series of explosions as the fire started, which Fire Chief A. T. Henrich said was the noise of cans of paint blowing up. Fire-fighters drew water from the swimming pool of the R. A. Carey home, higher up the hill, to help in fighting the blaze. By coincidence, the McAndrews had purchased the house from Carey. The $60,000 house and $20,000 furnishings were destroyed.

LAST WALL IN FLAMES—Unidentified spectator watches as flames lick at only standing wall of the McAndrew home in Ross after remainder of large house had burned to ground. This wall was farthest from garage where blaze started. Firemen extinguished blaze in large area of brush and trees surrounding house to prevent spread to other Ross hillside homes, but could do nothing to save the McAndrew house it self. (Story on page 1.) (Independent-Journal photos by Jim Kean)

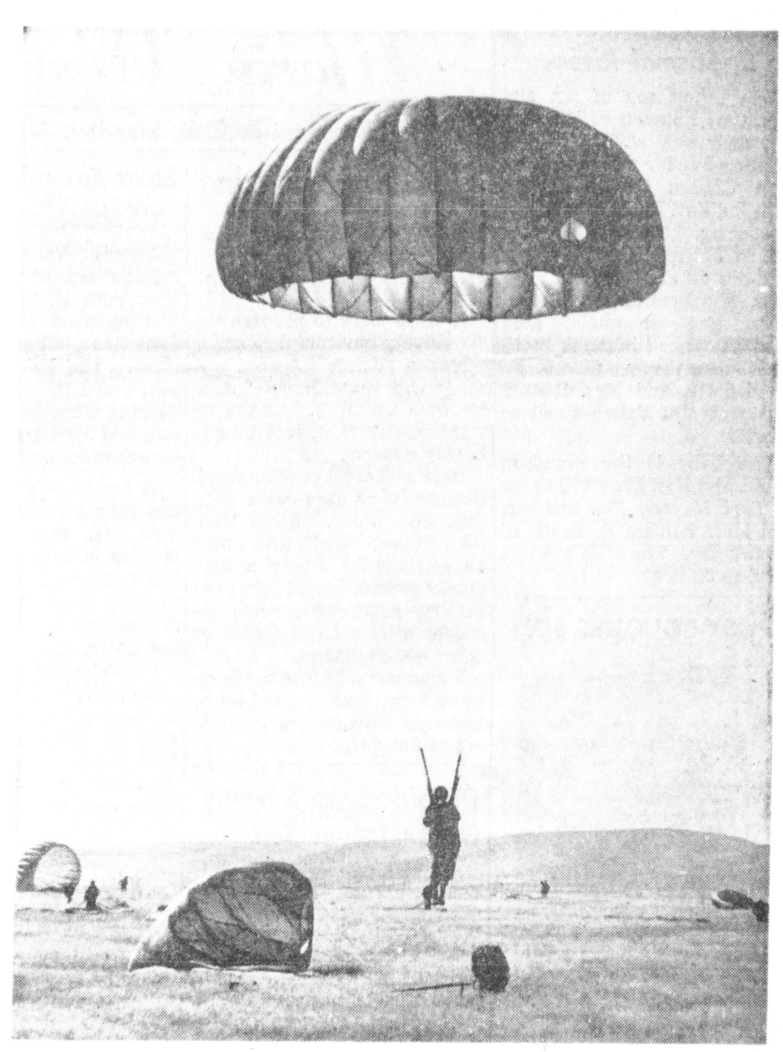
DOWN THEY GO!—Third wave of the C119 troop carrier planes of the 349th Troop Carrier Wing begins drop of 200 paratroops of the 101st Airborne Division of Ft. Campbell, Ky., over drop zone just south of Gowen Air National Guard Base, Boise, Ia.



'INVADERS' ON GROUND—Airborne troops hit the sod approximately one minute after 1,200-foot drop into "West Moravia." Drop was highlight of two-week summer reserve duty by the 1,300 members of the 349th "Golden Gate Wing."

THIS IS HOW WE'LL DO IT—Commissioned and non-commissioned officers of 349th listen to secret briefing at Boise before drop of airborne troops. Squadrons in the wing meet one weekend a month in addition to a two-week tour of active duty each year.

BIG STUFF AIR-DROPPED—Press and military observers squint into sun to watch heavy equipment drop by planes of the 349th wing. Paratroopers upon landing were "attacked" by Idaho National Guard tanks which later were "knocked out" by Air National Guard jet planes. (Independent-Journal photos by Dick Steinheimer)

Campfire Concludes Girl Scout Roundup

By VICKI EMERSON

With the music of "The Road Winds Upward," theme song of the 1959 Girl Scout Senior Roundup, ringing in our ears, the Marin County Patrol left the mountains of Colorado and took the road for home.

The two weeks filled with singing, swapping, demonstrations, forums, exhibits and campfires had come to an end all too soon. Now, after two days and two nights on the special Girl Scout train, we are looking back on all the memorable events and sorting out our memories. Of course, we will remember the food: 327,000 meals were consumed by the 10,000 campers. Even more staggering are the statistics about the ingredients that made up those meals. 57,000 pounds of meat, 70,000 eggs and three and a half tons of butter were just a portion of what made up our well-balanced diet.

We will remember, too, the 24-hour protection given us by the Colorado State Police and the Colorado Springs Fire Department and the 5th Army from Fort Carson, Colo.

The three youth forums were also highlights of the two weeks. The forums, "Human Relations," "Living in the Age of Space," and "Education, Careers and Marriage," were all conducted by panels of outstanding national authorities in these respective fields, and there was time for questions and answers at the end.

But, the most impressive event or ceremony for everyone was the final campfire which took the form of a Peace Campfire. Twenty-eight girls from countries all over the world, including an American representative, each carried her country's flag into the arena in a very impressive flag ceremony. Then, one by one, each girl in her native tongue made a plea for peace and then translated it into English. As she finished her speech each girl added a small log to the fire as a sign of peace.

The next morning, the day of our departure, each of the foreign girls and every patrol leader at the Roundup returned to the campfire site and took a small piece of wood from it.

On Thinking Day, next February 22, these symbolic brands will be put on fires all over the world with the hope of strengthening through the Girl Scouts the bonds of peace.

Tips On Powdering Oily Skins Given By Beauty Experts

It takes work to prepare the excessively oily complexion for a lasting powder job that will carry you through your summertime activities. But the rewards are worth it, according to beauty experts.

Here's what they recommend. Cleanse your face with mild soap and water. Rinse well, then go over the oily areas with an astringent. Apply a nongreasy powder base. Press powder on generously, removing excess with a facial tissue or clean powder brush.

Whenever your face needs repowdering, first blot off oil or moisture with tissues to avoid caked powder.

Keep Curls Intact

Roll a Kleenex tissue into a flat fold and secure it to your forehead with a couple of hair clips. Then fold up another tissue and anchor it to the back of the hairline. Gently pull your swim cap over the head, tucking the edges of the tissue into place.

Japanese Obi, Indian Sari Shown By London Designers

By EDDIE GILMORE

LONDON (AP) —The Japanese obi and the Indian sari figured today in Britain's new clothes for autumn and winter.

Mattli used both ideas in the elegant models he showed on the third and final day of the new style by the Incorporated Society of London Fashion Designers.

Mattli's obi is another name for a corselette, slashed to a high waist. It was seen in a cleverly draped blue jersey short evening dress. The bodice was tightly molded and swatched with a panel of fabric draped over the shoulder, suggesting the sari.

London's 12 top designers—who make up the membership of the society—made a strong bid this season to capture some of the fashion attention usually monopolized by Paris, Rome and Florence.

There were a large number of satins printed with glowing roses. Another was a black satin embossed with flowers in bright autumn shades.

The jacket to suits were longer.

Hats were extremely stylish—and different—at all the showings. An eye-catcher was the deep-brimmed cloche in black and brown with a black patent leather belt slung around the brim. Another was a flower pot in Canadian sable.

Belted Overcoat Pet Of Italian Fashions

By SUE CARDOZO

FLORENCE, ITALY (AP)—The big belted overcoat is the pet of Italian fashion collections for the coming fall and winter.

The eight days of showings in Rome and Florence ended recently. The couturiers joined in a buckle up, muffle up refrain.

Dark colors and conservative fabrics dominated daytime clothes. But lame, pronounced lah-may, embossed satin and encrusted lace ran riot at night.

Suits and dresses generally were straight and slim, with hemlines below the knees. Tunic tops came back, both fitted and loose. Suit jackets tended to hug the hips.

The waistline wandered slightly, mostly south. Hemlines frequently were doubled by the prevalent use of redingotes, middies and coats slightly shorter than the skirts beneath.

The collections of two designers under 30 were outstanding.

Other highlights of the Italian pageant of style were Irene Galitzine's Trompe l'Oeil suits, Fabiani's girded tweed ponchos, and the knitted silks seen among the Florence boutique offerings.

THE BETTER HALF by Bob Barnes

"Had a very exasperating day—my secretary kept sliding off my lap."

Schoolmarms Know Their Fashion Cues

Today's school teachers know their fashions.

This was illustrated at the recent 50th anniversary convention of the American Home Economics Assn. in Milwaukee. A feature of the convention, which was attended by thousands of home ec teachers from all over the country, was a fashion show designed especially for the academic set. Sixteen companies in the home sewing field participated in the show, presenting styles suitable for classroom wear, evening parties, faculty teas and weekends at home.

Today's sewing teacher is up to the minute in knowledge of fashion, new fabrics and new sewing techniques, and uses her professional knowledge to keep herself dressed in the most suitable and becoming fashions, in order to present an object lesson to her students.

Fall clothes most popular with the home ec teachers at the convention:

For daytime: heavy tweed skirts with matching or co-ordinated sweaters; simple wool dresses in vivid colors; Chanel-inspired suits also in bright colors with coordinated blouses.

Hansens' Visitors

Mrs. Edith Peck and Miss Geraldine Zwick of Friedens, Pa., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hansen of Mill Valley. Mrs. Peck is Mrs. Hansen's mother, and Geraldine is her niece.

Mrs. Adolph Kiefer Plans Luncheon For Her Daughter

Mrs. Adolph Kiefer of Sausalito will entertain at a luncheon for her daughter, Leslie, before the Wednesday matinee of the Summer Playbox production, "Wind in the Willows."

Leslie, who is in the cast, will have as her guests, Denise Brant of Lucas Valley; Lorie David, Ross; Katherine Oberto, San Rafael; Alice Gatterdam, San Anselmo and Martha Newbrand, Belvedere. All the children will be entering the fourth grade at Dominican this fall.

The play, by A. A. Milne, will open at the Sausalito Little Theatre Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock with matinees Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and evening performances Wednesday and Thursday.

Keep Curls Intact

If you have trouble keeping your curls intact even with a bathing cap for swimming, try this simple technique to give your cap a sealed edge.

Roll a Kleenex tissue into a flat fold and secure it to your forehead with a couple of hair clips. Then fold up another tissue and anchor it to the back of the hairline. Gently pull your swim cap over the head, tucking the edges of the tissue into place.

Japanese Obi, Indian Sari Shown By London Designers

By EDDIE GILMORE

LONDON (AP) —The Japanese obi and the Indian sari figured today in Britain's new clothes for autumn and winter.

The sari is the graceful garb in which Indian and Pakistani women—and some others—artfully drape themselves.

Mattli used both ideas in the elegant models he showed on the third and final day of the new style by the Incorporated Society of London Fashion Designers.

Mattli's obi is another name for a corselette, slashed to a high waist. It was seen in a cleverly draped blue jersey short evening dress. The bodice was tightly molded and swatched with a panel of fabric draped over the shoulder, suggesting the sari.

London's 12 top designers—who make up the membership of the society—made a strong bid this season to capture some of the fashion attention usually monopolized by Paris, Rome and Florence.

There were a large number of satins printed with glowing roses. Another was a black satin embossed with flowers in bright autumn shades.

As with all the presentations, the coats were nearly all straight.

The jacket to suits were longer.

For evening there was a harvest of bright autumn colors with shades of beige, brown and black for daytime.

Hats were extremely stylish—and different—at all the showings. An eye-catcher was the deep-brimmed cloche in black and brown with a black patent leather belt slung around the brim. Another was a flower pot in Canadian sable.

Belted Overcoat Pet Of Italian Fashions

By SUE CARDOZO

FLORENCE, ITALY (AP)—The The big belted overcoat is the pet of Italian fashion collections for the coming fall and winter.

The eight days of showings in Rome and Florence ended recently. The couturiers joined in a buckle up, muffle up refrain.

Heavy muted tweeds were fashioned into a cape-back silhouette, bulky and round-shouldered, with deep low-set sleeves baring the wrists.

The Italian collections on the whole were sedate, tailored and cautious. Their frivolity was restricted to fur trimmings, chunky necklaces and an occasional flounce.

Dark colors and conservative fabrics dominated daytime clothes. But lame, pronounced lah-may, embossed satin and encrusted lace ran riot at night.

Suits and dresses generally were straight and slim, with hemlines below the knees. Tunic tops came back, both fitted and loose. Suit jackets tended to hug the hips.

The waistline wandered slightly, mostly south. Hemlines frequently were doubled by the prevalent use of redingotes, middies and coats slightly shorter than the skirts beneath.

The collections of two designers under 30 were outstanding.

Roberto Capucci showed voluminous evening coats and trim tunic suits. Patric de Barenezen, Fath-trained Frenchman showing for the second time in Rome, scored with low-slung trench coats and imaginative detail.

Other highlights of the Italian pageant of style were Irene Galitzine's Trompe l'Oeil suits, Fabiani's girded tweed ponchos, and the knitted silks seen among the Florence boutique offerings.

THE BETTER HALF by Bob Barnes

"Had a very exasperating day—my secretary kept sliding off my lap."

Schoolmarms Know Their Fashion Cues

Today's school teachers know their fashions.

This was illustrated at the recent 50th anniversary convention of the American Home Economics Assn. in Milwaukee. A feature of the convention, which was attended by thousands of home ec teachers from all over the country, was a fashion show designed especially for the academic set. Sixteen companies in the home sewing field participated in the show, presenting styles suitable for classroom wear, evening parties, faculty teas and weekends at home.

Today's sewing teacher is up to the minute in knowledge of fashion, new fabrics and new sewing techniques, and uses her professional knowledge to keep herself dressed in the most suitable and becoming fashions, in order to present an object lesson to her students.

Fall clothes most popular with the home ec teachers at the convention:

For daytime: heavy tweed skirts with matching or co-ordinated sweaters; simple wool dresses in vivid colors; Chanel-inspired suits also in bright colors with coordinated blouses.

Two Bring National Recognition For Painting, Uniform Design

Marin's Junior Red Cross Chapter recently achieved national recognition when its pattern for a Junior Grey Ladies' uniform was made standard throughout the country, and Joan Marzell's art entry was chosen for the organization's international school art program.

Concerned over having no standard dress, the girls last summer asked Mrs. Harold Stetson of Mill Valley for help. She designed and made a pinafore type uniform, which was photographed on her daughter Debbie.

The colored photographs were sent to Red Cross national headquarters, together with the suggestion that a standard uniform be approved for use throughout the nation.

The type of pattern designed by Mrs. Stetson was accepted, and Junior Grey Ladies all over the country are now making their first standard outfits. They consist of white and blue striped dacron and cotton pinafores with emblems, and white blouses. The entire cost is only $2.22 per pinafore.

Joan's painting entitled "My neighbor has a fine project in the 4-H Club" was chosen winner among 39 entries from Marin for the international school art program. The painting, done at Novato High School under the direction of Mrs. Charles Stafford, will be one of 106 pictures sent from the Pacific area of Red Cross to Washington for inclusion in an international exhibit.

Winning art work from all over the world will be shown for the next year throughout the United States before going on a world tour.

Although only winning entries will be in this international exhibit, all paintings and drawings submitted will be utilized in the international art program. They will be made up into many smaller exhibits which will eventually go on world tours.

Depicted through the drawings and paintings of American school children, the American way of life is shown to young people of many foreign lands, and in return American children will see foreign modes of life in similar art exhibits coming to the United States from overseas.

The paintings from Marin County will be seen and studied by young people of 36 different countries.

Bowies Leave For Home In Colorado

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Bowie left their home at the Garden of Allah in Mill Valley this week for their home in Fort Morgan, Colo.

They will return in the middle of August and will be in Mill Valley only long enough to get ready for a world tour that will include seeing Dr. Albert Schweitzer in the Belgian Congo.

Mrs. Bowie met Dr. Schweitzer at the Goethe Bi-Centennial in Aspen, Colo., and since he speaks only French and German and she speaks German, they were able to converse easily. She reports that he was the most friendly of the many celebrities who were there.

The Bowies will leave by polar flight to Stockholm, where they will be joined by Mrs. Bowie's twin sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Symmes of Scarsdale, N.Y.

The foursome will take a three-week motor trip through Russia ending in Warsaw. After that the Symmes will go to Vienna, and the Bowies will fly to Lisbon.

From there they will go to Spain and Morocco and to the Belgian Congo, where they expect to see Dr. Schweitzer in Lamborene. After spending considerable time in South Africa seeing many famous places they will go to Johannesburg and fly from there to New York, returning to Mill Valley in time for the holidays.

Patricia Leftwich, Clark Raiser Exchange Vows In Saturday Rites

The Rev. Gordon L. Foster was the officiating minister for the wedding on Saturday at the Mill Valley Community Church of Patricia Leftwich and Clark Anderson Raiser.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Leftwich of Larkspur and the benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Raiser of Mill Valley.

Pink and white gladioli and white daisies were at the altar for the 2:30 o'clock single ring ceremony.

When George Leftwich escorted his daughter to the altar, she wore a white ballerina gown of lace and tulle. It was fashioned with a scoop neckline, lace bodice and three quarter sleeves. The bouffant skirt was of lace and tulle. Her elbow length veil of illusion was attached to a headdress of lace and seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and white carnations.

Joanne Murphy of Mill Valley was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Joan and Merilee Leftwich, the bride's sisters, of Larkspur. They wore identical dresses of peony pink chiffon styled with wide satin cummerbunds and scoop necklines. They wore bandeaux of tulle leaves with short veils and had matching shoes. They carried cascade bouquets of sweetpeas in varying shades of pale pink, deep pink and lavender.

Raymond Raiser of San Jose was best man for his brother and ushers were Charles Coburn of Orinda, and Larry Bartholow of San Anselmo.

Gardenias floating in the pool formed the decor for the reception for 150 guests which followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Carolyn Coburn, the bride's cousin, was in charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip to Southern California, the bride changed to a beige silk sheath with beige hat and avocado accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage.

Patricia was graduated from Sir Francisco Drake High School, Dominican College and attended the University of California. At Cal, she was affiliated with Delta Gamma Sorority. She is employed as a teacher in the Larkspur School District.

Mrs. George Leftwich of Bronxville, N.Y., and the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coburn of Marin County and San Francisco are her grandparents.

The bridegroom was graduated from Tamalpais High School. He is in his senior year in engineering at the University of California, where he is a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity. He recently completed two years military training with the U.S. Army.

Caribbean Cruise

On a 16-day Alcoa cruise in the Caribbean which extended to several color islands as well as the northern coast of South America were Mr. and Mrs. Leo McClain and two sons, David and Kim, of San Anselmo. They sailed on the SS Cavalier and their itinerary included the Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Port of Spain, Trinidad and the island of Curacao.

Two Couples Leave Today For Europe

En route to Europe are Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Owen of San Rafael and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gruber of Ross. They left today by train for New York and will sail from there on Saturday aboard the "Hanseatic" which lands in Southampton. After a short time in London the four will fly to Ireland. There they will see the first of the shrines on their trip, Our Lady of Knock. By boat the travelers will go to Wales, home of Mr. Owen's ancestors, and after three days will return to London.

The four will fly to Amsterdam, take the train to Cologne and travel by steamer down the Rhine to Wiesbaden. Then they'll go to Baden Baden, Munich, Salzburg, then to Vienna for five days. Next country will be Switzerland where stops will be made in Lucerne, Interlaken and Zermatt. Next will be France, with four days in Paris and a visit to the shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes planned. Lisbon, Portugal is the next city to be visited and from there the party will go to the shrine of Our Lady of Fatima.

Spain is next on the itinerary and after seeing Madrid, Seville and Granada the two couples will fly to Palma in Majorca. There they will visit the birthplace of Father Junipero Serra, founder of the California missions. This is of particular interest to Mr. Owen as he is vice president of the Serra Club of Marin.

The travelers will sail to Barcelona where they will visit the shrine of Our Lady of Montserrat. Monte Carlo is next on the itinerary and then after traveling along the French Riviera, the party will go to Venice for four days, Florence and Rome, where a week is scheduled, then Naples and Pompeii. The travelers will go to Greece for three days in Athens and then will sail aboard the "Olympia" from Piraeus for the Caribbean cruise, on which several ports will be visited, then cross the Atlantic to New York. They'll board the train there and will be home on Nov. 15.

The bouffant skirt was of lace and tulle. Her elbow length veil of illusion was attached to a headdress of lace and seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and white carnations.

Joanne Murphy of Mill Valley was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Joan and Merilee Leftwich, the bride's sisters, of Larkspur. They wore identical dresses of peony pink chiffon styled with wide satin cummerbunds and scoop necklines. They wore bandeaux of tulle leaves with short veils and had matching shoes. They carried cascade bouquets of sweetpeas in varying shades of pale pink, deep pink and lavender.

Raymond Raiser of San Jose was best man for his brother and ushers were Charles Coburn of Orinda, and Larry Bartholow of San Anselmo.

Mrs. Leftwich chose a gold and white raw silk sheath with a chiffon drape. She had a green cage veil and wore a white orchid corsage.

Gardenias floating in the pool formed the decor for the reception for 150 guests which followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Carolyn Coburn, the bride's cousin, was in charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip to Southern California, the bride changed to a beige silk sheath with beige hat and avocado accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage.

Patricia was graduated from Sir Francisco Drake High School, Dominican College and attended the University of California. At Cal, she was affiliated with Delta Gamma Sorority. She is employed as a teacher in the Larkspur School District.

Mrs. George Leftwich of Bronxville, N.Y., and the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coburn of Marin County and San Francisco are her grandparents.

The bridegroom was graduated from Tamalpais High School. He is in his senior year in engineering at the University of California, where he is a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity. He recently completed two years military training with the U.S. Army.

Caribbean Cruise

On a 16-day Alcoa cruise in the Caribbean which extended to several color islands as well as the northern coast of South America were Mr. and Mrs. Leo McClain and two sons, David and Kim, of San Anselmo. They sailed on the SS Cavalier and their itinerary included the Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Port of Spain, Trinidad and the island of Curacao.

Two Couples Leave Today For Europe

En route to Europe are Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Owen of San Rafael and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gruber of Ross. They left today by train for New York and will sail from there on Saturday aboard the "Hanseatic" which lands in Southampton. After a short time in London the four will fly to Ireland. There they will see the first of the shrines on their trip, Our Lady of Knock. By boat the travelers will go to Wales, home of Mr. Owen's ancestors, and after three days will return to London.

The four will fly to Amsterdam, take the train to Cologne and travel by steamer down the Rhine to Wiesbaden. Then they'll go to Baden Baden, Munich, Salzburg, then to Vienna for five days. Next country will be Switzerland where stops will be made in Lucerne, Interlaken and Zermatt. Next will be France, with four days in Paris and a visit to the shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes planned. Lisbon, Portugal is the next city to be visited and from there the party will go to the shrine of Our Lady of Fatima.

Spain is next on the itinerary and after seeing Madrid, Seville and Granada the two couples will fly to Palma in Majorca. There they will visit the birthplace of Father Junipero Serra, founder of the California missions. This is of particular interest to Mr. Owen as he is vice president of the Serra Club of Marin.

The travelers will sail to Barcelona where they will visit the shrine of Our Lady of Montserrat. Monte Carlo is next on the itinerary and then after traveling along the French Riviera, the party will go to Venice for four days, Florence and Rome, where a week is scheduled, then Naples and Pompeii. The travelers will go to Greece for three days in Athens and then will sail aboard the "Olympia" from Piraeus for the Caribbean cruise, on which several ports will be visited, then cross the Atlantic to New York. They'll board the train there and will be home on Nov. 15.

If You Have A School Beginner At Home Start To Prepare Him

Do you have a school beginner in your family—a boy or girl who will start school for the first time in September? Then you've work to do. Here are some important suggestions.

Has he visited his school enough to feel comfortable there? If not, take him this summer. Show him the classroom he'll be in. Show him the toilets, the office and the playground. Let him have fun on the playground, frequently.

Can he take care of his own needs? Can he go to the toilet without help? Can he blow his own nose and use his hanky properly? Can he put on and take off his own wraps? His teacher won't have time to help him. Independence gives security.

Does he answer to his real name or only to his nickname? Better start using his real name now. His teacher will call him Arthur, or John, not "Skipper" or "Buddy." Be sure he knows his address, his phone number and his daddy's first and last name.

Does he know how to go to and from school alone? Teach him this summer. It will save worries in September. Are his clothes like those other kids will wear? Try to get them.

Can he meet his teacher ahead of time? That may be impossible. Some teachers don't come to school until the last moment. Others resent taking time to meet pupils before school opens. But you can try. The best teachers of beginners spend a week or more before school visiting their future pupils. They talk with them. They learn their names and faces. Then their small charges can start school confidently. They know they have a friend they can depend on.

READERS FORUM

(Q) "My boy is 7. He has a temper. Once or twice a month he gets into fights with other little boys. What can I do?"

—N.T.H.

(A) Was his daddy a fighter too? Probably. There is no easy solution. Keep trying. Be consistent and patient. Gradually he'll learn.

ALMANAC

The evening stars are Jupiter, Venus, Saturn and Mars.

On this date in history:

In 1900, Orville Wright set a world record by staying aloft in an airplane for one hour 12 minutes and 40 seconds.

In 1945, the Communist Party of the United States was re-established.

In 1955, Austria regained her sovereignty after 17 years of occupation by foreign troops.

Thought for today: British statesman Benjamin Disraeli said: "Mr. Kremlin was distinguished for ignorance; for he had only one idea, and that was wrong."

Realty Loan Report

Marin County real estate loans totaling $326,328 have been invested during the first half of 1959 by the Prudential Insurance Co., Willard M. Hansen, Northern California regional manager for the company's mortgage loan department, said today. All were for residential purposes.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

SHE'D RATHER HAVE MOUSE THAN A HOUSE

HAVANT, England (AP) — Stella Thompson thinks mice are nice. She would rather have a mouse than a house.

The mouse, a wild one which Miss Thompson tamed, has the run of her one-room flat. She calls him Will.

Miss Thompson, 37, has been left a large, modern house by her late father, but she has decided not to move.

"I don't think Will would take to new surroundings," she explained. "He is shy and cannot fend for himself, and I just can't leave him."

Rest Area Planned For Fairgrounds

Beautifying the Fourth District Fairgrounds at Petaluma continued today in preparation for the Sonoma-Marin Fair, Aug. 6-9.

Fair management announced a contract has been let for construction of a rest area to the rear of the flower building. The installation will include outdoor cover for exhibitors of flowers, a bridged lake, a tumbling waterfall and a water fountain.

For months, members of 4-H clubs and Future Farmers of America have been readying their animals for judging in the show ring.

Closing day will be Kids Day, when youngsters put aside more serious aspects of the fair to participate in old-fashioned games and contests which have been staple entertainment of fairs through the years. A gala parade is scheduled for Aug. 9.

York Rite Honor To Hub Resident

Alfred Crooks Lee of 12 Sierra avenue, San Anselmo, has received the designation of Knight of the York Cross of Honor, highest honorary degree in the York Rite of Freemasonry. It is conferred only on those who have held the highest office in each of the four bodies of the rite.

Lee served as master of Fairfax Lodge of Masons in 1953, as master of Redwood Council, Royal and Select Masters, in 1959, and as commander of Marin Commandary, Knights Templar, in 1958. He was elected to San Francisco Priory and his election confirmed this month by the convent general of the order.

School Trustees Cancel Meeting

She said the board has scheduled a budget discussion at 10 a.m. Saturday in the district office, with final budget acceptance scheduled for a special meeting next Monday at 8 p.m. in the district office.

If You Have A School Beginner At Home Start To Prepare Him

Do you have a school beginner in your family—a boy or girl who will start school for the first time in September? Then you've work to do. Here are some important suggestions.

Has he visited his school enough to feel comfortable there? If not, take him this summer. Show him the classroom he'll be in. Show him the toilets, the office and the playground. Let him have fun on the playground, frequently.

Can he take care of his own needs? Can he go to the toilet without help? Can he blow his own nose and use his hanky properly? Can he put on and take off his own wraps? His teacher won't have time to help him. Independence gives security.

Does he answer to his real name or only to his nickname? Better start using his real name now. His teacher will call him Arthur, or John, not "Skipper" or "Buddy." Be sure he knows his address, his phone number and his daddy's first and last name.

Does he know how to go to and from school alone? Teach him this summer. It will save worries in September. Are his clothes like those other kids will wear? Try to get them.

Can he meet his teacher ahead of time? That may be impossible. Some teachers don't come to school until the last moment. Others resent taking time to meet pupils before school opens. But you can try. The best teachers of beginners spend a week or more before school visiting their future pupils. They talk with them. They learn their names and faces. Then their small charges can start school confidently. They know they have a friend they can depend on.

(Q) "My boy is 7. He has a temper. Once or twice a month he gets into fights with other little boys. What can I do?"

(A) Was his daddy a fighter too? Probably. There is no easy solution. Keep trying. Be consistent and patient. Gradually he'll learn.

Today is Monday, July 27, the 208th day of the year, with 157 more days to follow in 1959.

The moon is in its last quarter.

The evening stars are Jupiter, Venus, Saturn and Mars.

In 1900, Orville Wright set a world record by staying aloft in an airplane for one hour 12 minutes and 40 seconds.

In 1945, the Communist Party of the United States was re-established.

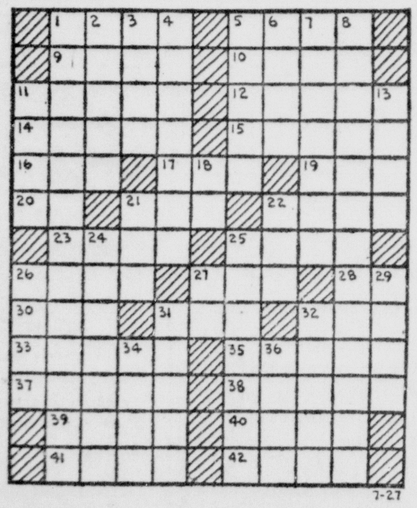
Saturday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

SHE'D RATHER HAVE MOUSE THAN A HOUSE

HAVANT, England (AP) — Stella Thompson thinks mice are nice. She would rather have a mouse than a house.

The mouse, a wild one which Miss Thompson tamed, has the run of her one-room flat. She calls him Will.

Miss Thompson, 37, has been left a large, modern house by her late father, but she has decided not to move.

"I don't think Will would take to new surroundings," she explained. "He is shy and cannot fend for himself, and I just can't leave him."

Rest Area Planned For Fairgrounds

Beautifying the Fourth District Fairgrounds at Petaluma continued today in preparation for the Sonoma-Marin Fair, Aug. 6-9.

Fair management announced a contract has been let for construction of a rest area to the rear of the flower building. The installation will include outdoor cover for exhibitors of flowers, a bridged lake, a tumbling waterfall and a water fountain.

For months, members of 4-H clubs and Future Farmers of America have been readying their animals for judging in the show ring.

Closing day will be Kids Day, when youngsters put aside more serious aspects of the fair to participate in old-fashioned games and contests which have been staple entertainment of fairs through the years. A gala parade is scheduled for Aug. 9.

York Rite Honor To Hub Resident

Alfred Crooks Lee of 12 Sierra avenue, San Anselmo, has received the designation of Knight of the York Cross of Honor, highest honorary degree in the York Rite of Freemasonry. It is conferred only on those who have held the highest office in each of the four bodies of the rite.

Lee served as master of Fairfax Lodge of Masons in 1953, as master of Redwood Council, Royal and Select Masters, in 1959, and as commander of Marin Commandary, Knights Templar, in 1958. He was elected to San Francisco Priory and his election confirmed this month by the convent general of the order.

How to deal with your tensions and live happier

Do little things upset you? Do you worry too much? Do you "blow up" when you shouldn't? Then don't fail to read this message! It's the best way you can possibly spend the next 47 seconds.

Today, 1 out of every 10 of our fellow Americans has a serious mental problem. But millions more of us are suffering from minor emotional problems. These problems can take a lot of the joy out of living, both for us and for the people around us.

Somehow each of us must learn how to deal with our own emotional tensions . . . how to keep these tensions from upsetting us and making us unhappy.

Here's a good way to start. Send today for the new free booklet, "How To Deal With Your Tensions". Write: Box 2500, New York 1, New York.

This booklet, written by psychiatric experts, gives valuable, easy-to-follow suggestions about how you can handle your tensions, and thus live happier. It also tells where to find professional help, if needed. Send for it today.

The Ultimate In Show Biz: Trick Whales

By BOB THOMAS

PALOS VERDES (AP)—Show business, which had seen about everything, now has a new kind of act—a trio of peforming whales.

Who would ever think of teaching whales tricks? No one. Not until Marineland of the Pacific hauled in a 14-foot, 1,700-pound black pilot whale and named her Bubbles. The sea-life showplace would have been content merely to display Bubbles in one of its teaming tanks.

But she learned tricks, too. She and her recent playmate, 10-foot Squirt, perform five times daily such stunts as shaking hands, waving, lifting barbells, punching bags, wearing fancy hats and doing a ponderous fandango. A late arrival, ton-and-a-half Bimbo, has already learned to leap out of the water.

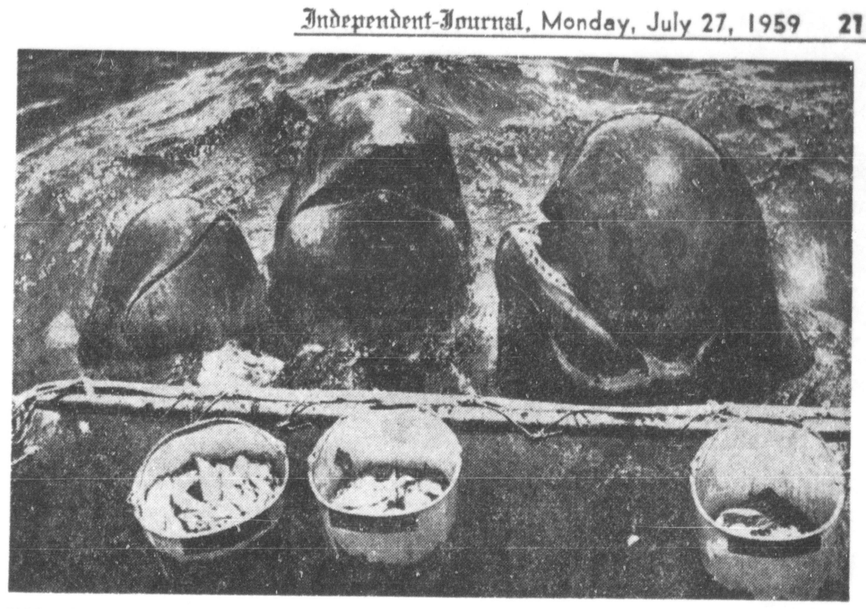
You start training a whale by getting its confidence. You toss some squid into the water closer and closer to you until the whale finally will eat out of your hand. That's half the battle.



WAITING FOR THE APPLAUSE—The three performing whales of Marineland of the Pacific wait for the applause—and a rewarding tidbit or two of fish—after displaying their tricks at the sea showplace. They are (from left) Bubbles, Squirt and Bimbo. (AP Wirephoto)

Whales have short memories. They might not recall a trick done 10 seconds before, so trainers blow whistles before the reward of food. It signifies a job well done. No trick, no whistle, no squid.

The Navy would like a lot of answers from whales. How come they can slip through the water with twice the efficiency of any fighting craft? What about their sonar? Marineland hunters found captives could find a hole in the net in the murkiest of waters. How? The whales utter ultrasonic noises that echo back information. They can even tell kinds of fish that way.

Whales have bigger brains than we do, and well-convoluted. But no sense of smell. Who needs it out in the ocean?

Marin Flower Clubs Plan Fair Displays

Seven leading flower clubs of Marin County today announced plans for floral exhibits for the four days of the Sonoma-Marin Fair opening Aug. 6 in Petaluma.

According to Dom Fusari, fair manager, the groups include the Novato Garden Group, Marin County Branch of the American Fuschia Society, Redwood Fuschia Society, Marinwood Garden Club, Marin Bonsai Garden Club and the Chrysanthemum Society of Marin.

The new $14,000 outdoor garden area now under construction at the fairgrounds will be completed in ample time for opening day, Fusari said.

Chickens Show Drop In Numbers

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Preliminary estimates by the Agricultural Department put the number of chickens raised on farms in 1959 at 400,660,000, 7 per cent fewer than raised last year.

The department said egg prices earlier this year were mainly responsible for the decline.

Farmers reported in February that they intended to buy 1 per cent fewer chicks in 1959 than they bought in the previous year.

Naval Air Reserve Officer Promoted

Joseph Pecora of 74 Billou street, San Rafael, has been promoted to lieutenant commander in the Naval Air Reserve.

He is a "weekend warrior" member of Anti-Submarine Helicopter Squadron HS-871 attached to Oakland Naval Air Station, where he spends one weekend each month flying the HSS-1 helicopter.

The Ultimate In Show Biz: Trick Whales

By BOB THOMAS

PALOS VERDES (AP)—Show business, which had seen about everything, now has a new kind of act—a trio of peforming whales.

Who would ever think of teaching whales tricks? No one. Not until Marineland of the Pacific hauled in a 14-foot, 1,700-pound black pilot whale and named her Bubbles. The sea-life showplace would have been content merely to display Bubbles in one of its teaming tanks.

But she learned tricks, too. She and her recent playmate, 10-foot Squirt, perform five times daily such stunts as shaking hands, waving, lifting barbells, punching bags, wearing fancy hats and doing a ponderous fandango. A late arrival, ton-and-a-half Bimbo, has already learned to leap out of the water.

You start training a whale by getting its confidence. You toss some squid into the water closer and closer to you until the whale finally will eat out of your hand. That's half the battle.

WAITING FOR THE APPLAUSE—The three performing whales of Marineland of the Pacific wait for the applause—and a rewarding tidbit or two of fish—after displaying their tricks at the sea showplace. They are (from left) Bubbles, Squirt and Bimbo. (AP Wirephoto)

Whales have short memories. They might not recall a trick done 10 seconds before, so trainers blow whistles before the reward of food. It signifies a job well done. No trick, no whistle, no squid.

Whales sleep, just like the rest of us. They nestle on the surface close together for safety, sleeping restively a few hours a night. Their eyes are remarkably instruments, seeing as well above water as below. The Navy is interested in this.

The Navy would like a lot of answers from whales. How come they can slip through the water with twice the efficiency of any fighting craft? What about their sonar? Marineland hunters found captives could find a hole in the net in the murkiest of waters. How? The whales utter ultrasonic noises that echo back information. They can even tell kinds of fish that way.

Whales have bigger brains than we do, and well-convoluted. But no sense of smell. Who needs it out in the ocean?

Marin Flower Clubs Plan Fair Displays

Seven leading flower clubs of Marin County today announced plans for floral exhibits for the four days of the Sonoma-Marin Fair opening Aug. 6 in Petaluma.

According to Dom Fusari, fair manager, the groups include the Novato Garden Group, Marin County Branch of the American Fuschia Society, Redwood Fuschia Society, Marinwood Garden Club, Marin Bonsai Garden Club and the Chrysanthemum Society of Marin.

The new $14,000 outdoor garden area now under construction at the fairgrounds will be completed in ample time for opening day, Fusari said.

Chickens Show Drop In Numbers

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Preliminary estimates by the Agricultural Department put the number of chickens raised on farms in 1959 at 400,660,000, 7 per cent fewer than raised last year.

The department said egg prices earlier this year were mainly responsible for the decline.

Farmers reported in February that they intended to buy 1 per cent fewer chicks in 1959 than they bought in the previous year.

Naval Air Reserve Officer Promoted

Joseph Pecora of 74 Billou street, San Rafael, has been promoted to lieutenant commander in the Naval Air Reserve.

He is a "weekend warrior" member of Anti-Submarine Helicopter Squadron HS-871 attached to Oakland Naval Air Station, where he spends one weekend each month flying the HSS-1 helicopter.

Shoe Business Slates Opening In San Rafael

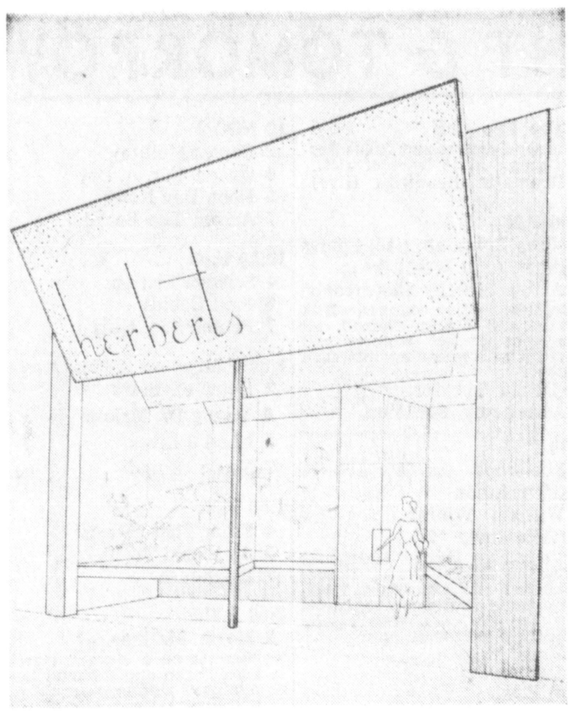
Herb Levine, for 12 years manager of Karl's Shoe Store in San Rafael, will open a new store offering women's and men's fashion shoes at 937 Fourth street during the latter part of August.

To be known as Herbert's Shoe Store, the new shop will be in a former hat store location next to Karl's, which is a family type store offering all classes of footware. Levine has resigned from Karl's effective at the end of this month. Before coming to San Rafael he was with Karl's for three years in Sonoma County.

Levine's brother-in-law, Simon Kaufman, now a manager in Sonoma County for Karl's, will be associated as partner in the new store. He will move to San Rafael shortly.

"We feel that there is need in this community for a modern fashion shoe store," said Levine.

He said the new establishment will offer Jarman shoes for men and young men, Valentine, Ted Sazel and Citation shoes for women, and Cover Girl and Fortenet dress and sport shoes in flat heels for women and young women.



NEW STORE FRONT—This is design by Miller and Severin of San Rafael for new store at 937 Fourth street which will house Herbert's Shoe Store, to be operated by Herb Levine, now San Rafael manager for Karl's Shoe Stores. Space formerly occupied by hat shop is being remodeled to this design.

LAW IN ACTION

Same Act May Violate U.S., State Statutes

(This column, prepared by California lawyers so you may know more about our laws, appears regularly in the Independent-Journal.)

We obey both federal and state laws, for example, covering crimes. The Supreme Court recently held that the same act may violate either one or both laws and the accused can be prosecuted under both laws without being placed in "double jeopardy."

Yet both kinds of law protect a citizen; and the federal constitution protects him from state laws which are unreasonable or oppressive, but now and then one gets caught between both kinds of law.

Recently a state court called in a witness to testify about certain crimes; the witness "took the Fifth Amendment" saying that to answer might incriminate him under federal law. Since state laws exempted from prosecution in state courts if he testified, the court ordered him to speak anyhow. The witness could:

1. Be held in contempt of the state court, and perhaps go to jail if he didn't answer;

2. Be held to face perjury charges if he lied; or

3. Tell the truth and face federal prosecution.

The promise not to prosecute in return for "singing" binds only the promising government: The state cannot bind the federal government, nor visa versa.

More, one state might prosecute a man on the testimony he gave in another state. One state's immunity pledge doesn't bind another.

Some states do not force testimony if, in giving it, a witness faces danger of prosecution by another state or the federal government.

Parents Pool Time, Talents To Baby-Sit

PACIFIC GROVE (AP)—An unusual neighborhood cooperative, a parents' baby sitting exchange, is in its third successful year in this residential community.

The Pacific Grove Baby Sitting Exchange is an organization of parents who sit, without charge, for children of other members of a strictly-organized reciprocal arrangement.

"We have found that the system gives up more dependable, capable baby sitters than we ever were able to get before," says Mrs. James Clark, co-founder and current president of the exchange.

"All of our sitters are mothers. They bring more experience and devote more time to the children than the usual teen-age girl."

These factors, she says, are more important than the fact that the sitters are free.

Mrs. Clark and another Pacific Grove mother, Mrs. Taradj Korkis, who now lives in Chula Vista, thought up the idea and established the exchange 2½ years ago.

The exchange has strict rules to protect the sitters. Before the sitter goes on duty for an evening the children must be fed and prepared for bed by the parents.

"The sitter doesn't even have to read a bedtime story if she doesn't want to—it's not expected of her," Mrs. Clark said. "This makes it a really relaxing job for the sitter who has had her own family to look after all day."

A member can refuse to sit any time without explanation. And a member also can build up a 15-hour debit before repaying. But if a member leaves the exchange with time owed, she contributes 25 cents to the "kitty" for each hour owed.

"Every request for a sitter is made through the exchange's secretary," Mrs. Clark explained. "Each sitter keeps her own record and so does the parent. Each submits her own account to the secretary at the exchange's monthly meeting, and the secretary checks these against her own records."

The members rotate the secretary job from month to month.

Membership rolls have varied from 10 families to four.

"We don't go looking for more members," says Mrs. Clark. "They hear about the exchange and ask to become members. Many times mothers think it is only a means to cheap baby sitting, but we soon set them right. The secretary goes to the home, and if she doesn't think the woman is a capable mother, she doesn't get a membership."

Most of the members don't see each other socially, which avoids complications in recruiting sitters. Husbands' occupations range from piano tuners to research engineers.

The children are the only ones who object to the rules.

Mrs. Clark says her 8-year-old son, Jeffrey, doesn't like having to get into his pajamas at 7 o'clock if she's going out.

"Mom," he says, "you're the president now. Why don't you change the rules?"

Sacramento Roundhouse Slated For Scrap Heap

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Southern Pacific's huge roundhouse, which once ranked among the finest in the land, soon will be so much scrap.

But then, in the years of technical progress after World War II, S.P. swung to the more efficient diesel engines.

Finally, this year, S.P. abandoned the Sacramento operations completely and the roundhouse was sold to a wrecking contractor.

Shoe Business Slates Opening In San Rafael

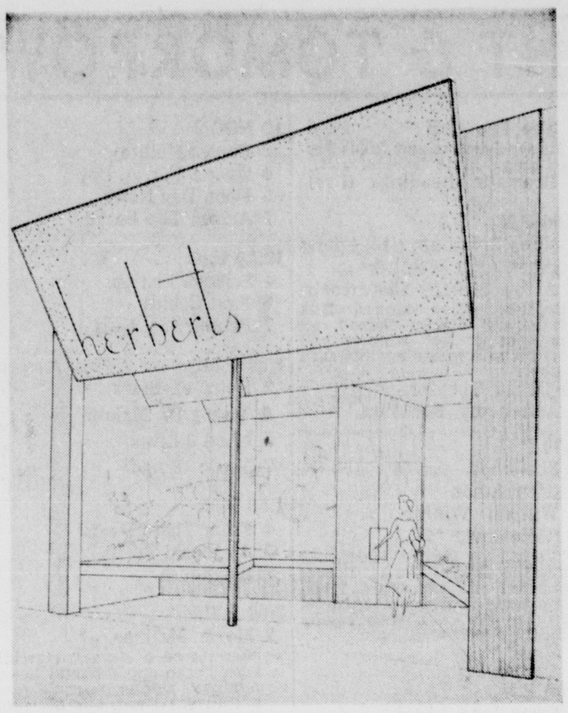
Herb Levine, for 12 years manager of Karl's Shoe Store in San Rafael, will open a new store offering women's and men's fashion shoes at 937 Fourth street during the latter part of August.

To be known as Herbert's Shoe Store, the new shop will be in a former hat store location next to Karl's, which is a family type store offering all classes of footware. Levine has resigned from Karl's effective at the end of this month. Before coming to San Rafael he was with Karl's for three years in Sonoma County.

Levine's brother-in-law, Simon Kaufman, now a manager in Sonoma County for Karl's, will be associated as partner in the new store. He will move to San Rafael shortly.

"We feel that there is need in this community for a modern fashion shoe store," said Levine.

He said the new establishment will offer Jarman shoes for men and young men, Valentine, Ted Sazel and Citation shoes for women, and Cover Girl and Fortenet dress and sport shoes in flat heels for women and young women.



NEW STORE FRONT—This is design by Miller and Severin of San Rafael for new store at 937 Fourth street which will house Herbert's Shoe Store, to be operated by Herb Levine, now San Rafael manager for Karl's Shoe Stores. Space formerly occupied by hat shop is being remodeled to this design.

LAW IN ACTION

Same Act May Violate U.S., State Statutes

(This column, prepared by California lawyers so you may know more about our laws, appears regularly in the Independent-Journal.)

We obey both federal and state laws, for example, covering crimes. The Supreme Court recently held that the same act may violate either one or both laws and the accused can be prosecuted under both laws without being placed in "double jeopardy."

Yet both kinds of law protect a citizen; and the federal constitution protects him from state laws which are unreasonable or oppressive, but now and then one gets caught between both kinds of law.

Recently a state court called in a witness to testify about certain crimes; the witness "took the Fifth Amendment" saying that to answer might incriminate him under federal law. Since state laws exempted from prosecution in state courts if he testified, the court ordered him to speak anyhow. The witness could:

1. Be held in contempt of the state court, and perhaps go to jail if he didn't answer;

2. Be held to face perjury charges if he lied; or

3. Tell the truth and face federal prosecution.

The promise not to prosecute in return for "singing" binds only the promising government: The state cannot bind the federal government, nor visa versa.

More, one state might prosecute a man on the testimony he gave in another state. One state's immunity pledge doesn't bind another.

Some states do not force testimony if, in giving it, a witness faces danger of prosecution by another state or the federal government.
